ATLANTANS SPEAK AT OPEN MEETING ON BOYKIN'S PLAN

SENATE REFUSES TO SEAT FINLEY

Game and Fish Board Appointee Only Hardman Official Not Confirmed by Upper House.

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

After an open discussion of the Boykin income tax bill before the House ways and means committee Thursday afternoon, with speeches delivered by Robert C. Alston and Harold Hirsch, Atlanta lawyers, and Dr. Sam W. Small, of the editorial staff of The Constitution, the committee deferred action on the bill until a later session. The open committee session in the afternoon was one of the chief features of the day. As the Thursday session of the House was crowded with action, the committee meeting, in executive session, declined to confirm the appointment of D. A. Finley, of Valdosta, as member of the state game and fish board as successor to Dr. J. E. Hardin, of Whigham. This was the only appointment of the governor the senate has declined to confirm during the present session. The refusal of the body to seat the new man was due to the situation existing in the department of game and fish at present.

Government Changes Asked.
Introduction of a measure by Representative Hugh Peterson, of Montgomery, and others, providing for the sweeping changes in the state government which were recommended in a report returned recently by a special commission named by Governor L. G. Hardman and headed by Ivan E. Allen, prominent Atlanta businessman, was one of the interesting developments of the day in the House. Another interesting incident in the House session was a statement made by Representative Charles Stewart, of Atkinson county, leader of the anti-bond issue forces, that he already had made up his mind on the bond issue question and did not care to hear any arguments about it. He arose to a question of personal privilege and had the clerk read a story in The Constitution telling of the indignation of certain leaders over the move to have members sign a pledge against bonds before any hearing of any kind had been held on the question. He then stated that he had signed a pledge to vote against bonds and would do so regardless of what developments at hearings on the subject.

Dr. Small Speaks.
At the ways and means committee hearing Thursday afternoon Dr. Small, by invitation of the author of the bill, argued the question of the constitutionality of the general assembly to pass any form of income or sales tax bill in its discretion. As the only survivor of those who sat in the convention of 1877 that made the constitution, he cited its provisions giving the legislature plenary power to tax anything or anybody not exempted by the constitution itself. He declared that the "sweeping clause" of the constitution to that effect and challenged any lawyer or legislator in Georgia to point out any prohibition against the enactment of the income tax or the sales tax.

Dr. Small quoted legal authority to show that an income tax is not a property tax, but an excise tax distinct from the provisions of ad valorem or uniformity requirements. He said it is constitutional, fair, elastic and a necessary, just as the federal income tax is, and repeatable at the pleasure of the legislature.

ROAD BOARD DEBTS TOTAL $1,701,449

Colonel Sam Tate, Chairman, Reports to Senate on Finances and Work of Construction.

Outstanding obligations amounting to $1,701,449.85 have been contracted by the Georgia state highway board, it was reported to the state senate Thursday by Colonel Sam Tate, chairman. The total mileage of state roads completed and under construction was set at 5,349 as against 6,290 miles of roads in the state aid system.

Colonel Tate's report was made following a resolution introduced by Senator B. B. Zellars, of the 30th, and adopted by the upper house calling for a detailed statement of the highway board's indebtedness and the condition of the state highway system. The information contained was expected to play an important part as a concrete basis for debate over the highway bond issue.

The total indebtedness as shown did not include more than $600,000 designated as owing to contractors and counties. These amounts were subtracted because of arrangements already made for their payment and $481,165.09 was indicated as the sum agreed upon with counties as deferred obligations, while $122,851.41 was due contractors when work now in progress shall have been completed.

More than a fifth of the indebtedness has been assigned for payment during the current year, the report showed. The dates and amounts of payments were given as follows: June 30, $97,255.32; July 30, $128,778.12; August 30, $49,358.12, and September 30, $79,302.63. These figures were credited in the sum given as the total indebtedness of the board.

The report listed approximately $730,000, as miscellaneous obligations. Of this, $89,608.24 was for equipment purchased and $100,000 for supervision of construction. Special allotments of $320,276.22 have been approved.

Regent Board Is Urged By Stokes To Supplant Trustees of University

Abolition of the present board of trustees of the University of Georgia system and creation of a board of regents with full authority to operate this system is provided in a bill which will be introduced in the house today by Representative W. C. Stokes, of Twiggs county. There are now 250 members of board of trustees operating the university and its 28 branches.

Under provisions of the bill the board of regents shall take over all powers now held by the trustees. The board shall have authority to appoint and remove the president and to supervise all expenditures. It shall have authority to manage and control the property, both personal and real. The members of the board of regents shall assume their duties within ten days after their appointment by the governor. They will draw a per diem of $7 a day and shall hold quarterly meetings.

Stokes' Bill.
In outlining the provisions of his bill, Representative Stokes said: "Georgia's state schools and colleges are facing a crisis. The situation challenges the serious and patriotic and unselfish thought of every legislator and every citizen. Our road problem looms big. But it is not to be compared with the seriousness of our educational problems. Some solution must be found. For the most part we have an able educational leadership in Georgia. But we have utter chaos in our university system, chaos that has wasted thousands of dollars of our public funds, and a condition that has earned for our university and its branches the deserved contempt of educators throughout the nation."

"I think it would be a legislative crime, at this moment when all the dollars that there can be any hope of finding to meet our educational crisis, for the general assembly to appropriate another dollar for our university under a single management. We have provided for a management that makes economy and efficiency and business-like management possible."

Survey Is Needed.
"A joint resolution has been introduced in the general assembly to provide for a survey of the university and its branches. I am for it. We need the machinery it provides to make a real investigation of conditions in these institutions, machinery that permits the taking of testimony from witnesses under oath. This resolution is approved by the chancellor of the university. It has already passed the senate. It should be speedily passed in the house, but in God's name, what good will such a survey be if we do not provide with a centralized and responsible management that will have the power to make immediately effective the consolidation of reforms that the survey commission finds desirable. Surely the machinery it provides is not needed to tell us that we need a consolidation of the branches under a single management. Common sense tells us that. We have known it for years but we have permitted local, political and inherent right to opportunities in Georgia schools and colleges equal to those enjoyed by the boys and girls of other states, forcing them to institute reforms in other states, taking thousands of additional dollars out of our state, all because we lack the courage to break the bonds of petty political log rolling?"

"With the multitude of management and budgets for our university system a Philadelphia lawyer could not figure it out so as to tell a Georgia legislator what he is doing when he votes appropriations for their support."

POINCARÉ STAKES POLITICAL FUTURE ON DEBT PAYMENT

Demands France Ratify U. S. Debt Accord Regardless of Reservations Based on Reparations.

Paris, July 11.—(AP)—The French debt to the United States has the same value as a French treasury bond, Premier Poincaré told the chamber of deputies today in opening debate on ratification of the war debt settlements.

The premier declared categorically that there was no other issue than pure and simple ratification. In his analysis of the situation, the premier, plunging into the problem which will have a decided effect on the fate of his government, gave a synopsis of the events that led up to the issue of Liberty bonds which enabled the United States to lend immense sums to the allied powers.

Replies to Interruptions.
Mounting the speaker's stand according to his habit, the premier had consulted freely during his discourse and utilized in reply to interruptions.

Louis Marin, leader of the conservative group, demanded of the premier that he should agree to distribute the burden of the war equally among all the allies and associates. To this M. Poincaré replied that as far as France is concerned he was now occupied with money borrowed to continue the war and which ought to be repaid.

Successful interruptions during the premier's speech indicated that domestic political considerations held an important place in the debate, each party apparently endeavoring to throw upon the other responsibility for having incurred the enormous obligation involved and not having been able to arrive at a more advantageous settlement.

Declares for Ratification.
During his remarks M. Poincaré called the attention of the chamber to the attitude of Philip Snowden, the new chancellor of the exchequer in Great Britain, in an effort to show that the question required a clear and unequivocal decision, which he declared could be no other than ratification of the debt settlements without qualification.

M. Poincaré continued to speak right up to the time of adjournment and he was again taken the rostrum tomorrow morning.

At one stage of his remarks he admitted that the American army stocks, for which France agreed to pay $400,000,000 on August 1 of this year, constituted a bad investment for the French government, but he said that this was due partly to poor management of the sales and also to the fall of the franc on the international money markets.

HOOVER ADVISES PROTECTION ONLY

President Frowns on Imports Amounting to Embargo—Tydings Is Bitter in Tirade.

Washington, July 11.—(AP)—Commenting on the protests received from foreign governments on the pending tariff bill, Chairman Borah of the senate foreign relations committee today declared "the real kick against the house tariff bill is with our own people and not with the people abroad."

"I do not think that in all the history of tariff legislation," Senator Borah said in a statement, "there has been such an utter disregard of the pledges of a party as are incorporated in the house tariff bill."

"When we take into consideration the mergers and the combines which are being formed with reference to everything which goes into one's stomach and onto his back and then take into consideration the aid which is given such mergers by the house bill, I think it is the American people who had better be vigilant as to what is happening."

"It is natural, and I think perfectly proper, for foreign people to bring to our attention what they conceive to be the probable effect of our proposed legislation relative to the tariff. And, of course, we should always take into consideration what the probable effect abroad will be because we are interested in our foreign trade."

In other words, the effect abroad is one of the elements which ought to be considered in making a tariff. Tariff was discussed by President Hoover today with senate republican leaders in a session of the tariff committee. The tariff committee was held in the White House.

Senator Watson, of Indiana, and Reed, of Pennsylvania, ranking republicans on the finance committee, were breakfast guests of the president. The White House has been the scene of the house bill duties would have to be lowered, but he did not specify.

WHOOPIING COUGH, MEASLES POPULAR, REPORT REVEALS

Washington, July 11.—(P)—Nine out of ten of America's population has had measles and about three-fourths of the population has had whooping cough.

Tapering down somewhat the number of those who have had mumps and chicken pox come next in a report made today by the United States public health service.

The report states that by the time adult ages have been reached nearly 90 per cent of the persons have been attacked by measles, from 75 to 80 per cent by whooping cough, from 70 to 75 per cent by mumps, from 50 to 60 per cent by chicken pox and from 10 to 15 per cent by scarlet fever. Ten to fifteen per cent have suffered clinical attacks of diphtheria, but as many as 60 per cent give a negative Schick reaction, indicating an immunity to the latter disease.

"In every instance the maximum fatality occurs under one year of age," the report asserted. "The fatality of measles, whooping cough and mumps decline to an almost negligible percentage by 5 years of age, but the decline for scarlet fever and particularly diphtheria is by no means as great as in the case of the other three diseases."

BY THE DIAL TWISTERS.

The boys at the Walter Reed hospital in Washington will be the honored guests at a mammoth radio party tonight. With WSB and 33 other stations of the National Broadcasting Company coast-to-coast system participating, Billy Jones and Ernie Hare, the Interwoven Pair, will send half an hour of song and comedy into the air for the specific entertainment of Uncle Sam's favorite sons in the national capital.

Graham McNamee, who already knows many of the ex-service men at Walter Reed through previous appearances there, will act as master of ceremonies, introducing the program at 7 o'clock. McNamee will engage in lively repartee with Jones and Hare during the comic interludes between numbers.

The program will be piped especially to WRN, the N. B. C. Washington station for transmission to the great hospital. Arrangements have been made to tune in on the program with every set in the building, and already tubes have been replaced and dials polished for the occasion.

"Just a good show" was adopted by Jones, Hare and Will Perry, the orchestra director, as their guiding slogan in assembling these selections for the broadcast:

IMPERIAL HOTEL SOLD TO CECIL R. CANNON

New Owner Will Spend
$150,000 on Peachtree
Structure.

The Imperial hotel, situated on Peachtree and Ivy streets, has been purchased by Cecil R. Cannon, lessee of the Henry Grady hotel, for a price rumored at $250,000, it was learned today. Mr. Cannon plans a complete remodeling of the building at a cost of $150,000.

Plans for the new building were drawn by G. Lloyd Preacher, local architect and engineer. They call for a structure nine stories high containing 118 rooms each with a private bath. Among other improvements there will be a new lobby attractively decorated and furnished, and entirely new and modern furniture for the rooms. The facade will border on the side walk thus giving room for extensive enlargements.

Work on the building was started on the eighth of July and the hotel is expected to be ready for occupancy in the early fall. Mr. Cannon also is the lessee of the Piedmont hotel which is now in process of reconstruction. J. J. Chambers, of Keenan & Chambers, realtors, acted as agent for Mr. Cannon.

The hotel property was purchased from Emory university, which acquired the property from the Candler family, several years ago.

TWO MEN HELD AT DECATUR ADMIT THEFT OF AUTO

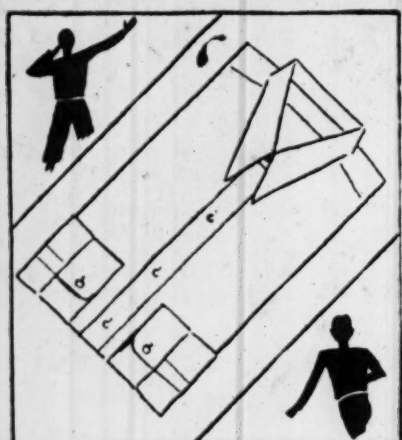

Decatur, Ga., July 11.—(Special.) Following their confession to stealing the automobile they were driving, police said W. F. Frazier, 29, and Wade Bailey, 33, who give a Greenville, S. C., address, today were being taken a long trip out west, as well as other cross-country jaunts.

On being questioned, Frazier and Bailey admitted that the sedan they were driving was stolen about the first of the year from Mobile, Ala. Since that time the two men have driven thousands of miles, taking a long trip out west, as well as other cross-country jaunts.

The two men said that they were stopped in Columbus, Ga., Wednesday and laughingly recalled that the chief of police in that city had released them after they "told him a nice story." The arrest was made in Decatur by Patrolmen O. B. Rowell and Ed Walden.

The feasibility of repairing landing gear of aircraft in flight was completely demonstrated Thursday at Candler field, where Beeler Blevins and Johnny Gill, as pilots, carried out a maneuver which almost ended disastrously for the former during an attempt to land. Bonnie Rowe, well known parachute jumper and wing-walker, riding with Gill in Blevins' plane, piloted by Champa Taliaferro, Blevins attempted to perform the stunt last week resulted in a smashed prop when the dangling wheel swung against it, and a hazardous landing in a cotton field.

The performance was photographed for Paramount News from a plane piloted by Champa Taliaferro. Blevins attempted to perform the stunt last week resulted in a smashed prop when the dangling wheel swung against it, and a hazardous landing in a cotton field.

Two visiting planes landed at Candler field Thursday, one of them, a five-place Stinson-Detroler cabin airplane of the Chattanooga (Tenn.) airways bringing a cargo of visitors to this city. It is expected to return to Tennessee today. The other "out-of-town" was Jimmy Krouskop, Macon barnstormer, who arrived in his L. A. C. biplane, powered with a Hissmo motor. Both ships were stored in Beeler Blevins' hangar for the night.

The department of commerce, aeronautics branch, announced Thursday that the Jacksonville-Atlanta airway now is completed and ready for operation. Work on the airway, which is a section of the Atlanta-Miami route, operated by Pictorial Aviation, Inc., included the placing of guiding towers and beacon lights and the locating of intermediate landing fields.

Southern field, at Americus, widely known as a wartime base for the army air corps, Thursday was bought by Sumter county from the government, the consideration for the entire plant, including 400 acres of land, housing accommodations for 1,000 persons and several hangars, being $17,500. Following the purchase the property announced that the airport would be maintained as a community enterprise, either under lease or as a municipal project. Necessary repairs to hangars and other buildings will be started at once, it was said. Lindbergh, among other famous fliers, received a portion of his training at Americus, having purchased his first plane at the flying field there in 1925, only a few months before his epochal trans-Atlantic flight.

Considerable interest is being manifested in south Georgia over the impending visit of Clarence D. Chamberlin, famous aviator, who is expected to land Saturday morning at Redfern field, St. Simon's island, Chamberlin, who is connected with the Western Air Express, of New York, is making a survey of a proposed coast line air route from New York to Miami. He is accompanied on the southern trip by R. G. B. Morris, also an official of Western Air Express. Chamberlin is best known for his non-stop flight to Germany in a Biplane monoplane, with Charles A. Levine as a passenger.

With new airplane passenger routes opening up every other day or so, the anticipated rate-cutting war has started. The Transcontinental Air Transport line was no sooner inaugurated than the New York Cen-

WIDOW AWARDED $125,000 IN SUIT FOR ESTATE SHARE

Baltimore, July 11.—(AP)—Following the dictate of the Maryland court of appeals, Judge Eugene D'Dunne today signed a decree giving a verdict of $125,000 from the estate of George W. Whitehurst to Mrs. Claire J. Ulrich, Whitehurst's former New York actress.

The estate of Mr. Whitehurst, in which the former Claire Ulrich, united ed to him in the famous "prayer book ceremony," in which both knelt and signed a prayerbook, claimed a widow's share, amounting to approximately $250,000.

The case, fought through two courts, finally was taken to the appeals tribunal, which held the marriage legal from a point of litigation.

You can keep your food Wholesome and your refrigerator Odorless with

Charbox
The Remarkable Purifier

With a Charbox

in your Refrigerator (either iced or mechanical) you can now keep onions and milk, cantaloupe, meats, cream, etc., in the same refrigerator without fear of any item becoming contaminated with flavors and odors of other foods.

MAKE your refrigerator a safe and sweet refrigerator—The odors from edible meats and fruits will very often contaminate baby's milk, ruin the butter, salads, etc.

Charbox, the remarkable purifier, absorbs these odors as fast as they are given off, and will keep the box sweet and fresh.

Charbox will repay its cost many times over through its savings of food from contamination. No germ-laden odors can escape it.

Each item of food retains its own individual flavor, as Charbox absorbs free odors and gaseous flavors and is itself absolutely odorless.

HOW CHARBOX WORKS

Simply remove a Charbox from its carton, lift off protective moisture-proof pads and place the Charbox on its edge on the top shelf of your refrigerator (either iced or mechanical).

It immediately goes to work and begins absorbing the odors and gases that carry a flavor.

As the air is constantly circulating in the refrigerator it will pass through the Charbox where it is cleaned and allowed to pass on. One Charbox will keep your refrigerator sweet for three (3) months before replacement becomes necessary.

Charbox is on sale at all Georgia Power Company stores. Price, 75c each.

NOTE: If you are unable to purchase Charbox at your drug store, grocery store, hardware dealer or department store, write us and we will supply you.

NAVAL HONORS PAID 21 SUB WRECK VICTIMS

Ceremony Arranged in Accordance With British Custom.

Pembroke, Wales, July 11.—(P)—At sunset tonight the great battleship Rodney led six destroyers and five submarines over the spot where the submarine H-47 sank Tuesday after collision with the L-12 and rendered last naval honors to 21 members of the H-47 crew who lie confined within their ship 60 fathoms deep in St. George's channel.

The ceremony was arranged in accordance with British naval custom as soon as the admiralty had announced its decision to abandon all attempts to salvage the sunken submarine.

A short memorial service was conducted, wreaths were cast into the sea and the big guns of the battleship and her auxiliaries paid a last salute to the gallant dead.

The Rodney flew the flag of Rear Admiral H. E. Grace, commander of submarines at Portsmouth naval station.

The admiralty informed Admiral Grace this afternoon that in view of the certainty that all the missing men perished immediately when the vessel sank and of the difficulties in salvaging a vessel which lay so deep, further salvage attempts would be abandoned.

EATONTON CREAMERY JOINS CORPORATION

Eatonton, Ga., July 11.—(P)—The Eatonton Co-operative Creamery, which produced a butter made famous in the "Uncle Remus" stories of the late Joel Chandler Harris, has joined the list of Georgia creameries recently purchased by the J. C. Penny Corporation, it was learned today.

Th Eatonton butter was kept in the springhouse of "Miss Meadows" in the Harris stories. Former President Taft once asked for "some of this butter on hot waffles with Georgia cane syrup" when he was invited to breakfast at Macon.

Frank E. Newlander, it is understood, will continue as manager of the creamery under the Penny ownership.

VEGETABLE DEALER HELD IN MARLOW DEATH

Wealthy Artichoke Merchant Questioned in Slaying of Racketeer.

New York, July 11.—(P)—An artichoke merchant who owns an armored automobile emerged today as a new figure in the investigation of the slaying of Frank Marlow, Broadway racketeer.

Sought ten days by the police, Cirro Terranova, whom Police Commissioner Whelan contends had an engagement with Marlow on the night of June 24 when he was slain during a ride from Broadway to Queens, accepted an "invitation" to visit headquarters last night.

He was questioned five hours and then permitted to return to his $52,000 home at Pelham, N. Y. He denied having an engagement with Marlow the night of the slaying, but Commissioner Whelan said he would be confronted by five material witnesses held by the police.

Those being held under $50,000 bail each are Edward M. (Boston Louis) Lewis, Ignatius Coppin, Al Seidel, Johnny Wilson and Miss Minnie Seiden. The last named tried vainly yesterday to obtain her release on a writ of habeas corpus.

Two of Terranova's brothers were slain in gang feuds several years ago and Terranova gave the fear of sharing a like fate as his reason for his armed car. Commissioner Whelan said Terranova was not the leader of a powerful Italian secret society sought as the instigator of the Marlow slaying.

Albany, Ga., July 11.—(Special).—Temporary cessation of hostilities seems to prevail in Albany, "filling station war."

For a time there was much skirmishing and maneuvering of opposites for the advantage. On one side were those citizens who were desirous of building new filling stations in various sections of the city. Against them were arrayed other citizens who did not want filling stations located near their homes, or near some school house or hospital.

Albany has an ordinance providing that before any filling station can be built within the city limits, the prospective builder must advertise his intentions in the local paper for a certain prescribed period of time, announcing the date on which the petition will come before the board of city commissioners. When the petition is finally heard by the board, it may be rejected, providing a certain proportion of citizens living within a prescribed distance from the proposed station, file objections.

Something workers should learn from athletes — To take advantage of the pause that refreshes

It doesn't matter how hard you've got to work. You can learn a lot about keeping up speed and good spirits from a ball game. You learn that the brief rest period between innings gives the game its pep and zip—that a pause for an ice-cold Coca-Cola relieves the tense moments, and gets everybody off to a fresh start . . . Today workers in offices and factories have caught the idea—how an ice-cold Coca-Cola, with its tingling, delicious taste and cool after-sense of refreshment, makes a little minute long enough for a big rest. They call it the pause that refreshes. Better work results. That wins the approval of the sternest boss who ever kept tab on a time-clock. Everybody is happier.

THE BEST SERVED DRINK IN THE WORLD

A pure drink of natural flavors served ice-cold in its own glass and in its own bottle—the crystal-thin glass that represents the best in soda fountain service; the distinctive Coca-Cola bottle, sterilized, filled and sealed air-tight without the touch of human hands. Coca-Cola!

150,000-ACRE TRACT
OF SMOKY PARK
IS TO BE DEEDED

Asheville, N. C., July 11.—(AP)—Plans for taking over additional holdings of the Champion Fibre Company and deeding of the first 150,000-acre unit of the Smoky Mountain National park to the United States were made here today at a joint meeting of the Tennessee and North Carolina park commissions.

Mark Squires, chairman of the North Carolina commission, and Colonel David C. Chapman, of Knoxville, chairman of the Tennessee commission, together with other members of the commission, conferred at noon with Reuben R. Robertson, president of the Champion Fibre Company.

The question before the commission at a later session was whether any of the land could be deeded to the federal government unless all tracts adjoining each other.

Under provisions of the legislation creating the park the commissions of the two states were authorized when they had acquired the first 150,000 acres of the park area to turn the tract over to the United States for administration and protection. However, development work will not start until the entire 420,000 acres is acquired.

The North Carolina commission has under option 54,000 acres, more than 20,000 actually deeded to the state and is condemning 38,400 additional acres. Tennessee has deeded to the state approximately 125,000 acres.

Battle of Alienists Looms in Trial of Alleged Slayer of Girl.

Columbus, Ohio, July 11.—(AP)—Common Pleas Judge Henry L. Scarlett today heard arguments on a motion for a postponement of the trial of Dr. James H. Snook, confessed slayer of Thelma K. Hix, 25, Ohio State co-ed, and announced he would give his decision tomorrow.

The "battle of alienists" expected at the trial set for July 22, started today when the mental experts employed by the state and the defense, submitted contradictory affidavits.

Doctors James H. Berry, of the Athens State hospital, and George W. Heffner, Circleville, declared that they had not had sufficient time to complete their examination of Dr. Snook to determine his mental condition.

Dr. William H. Pritchard, superintendent of the Columbus State hospital; Dr. Robert C. Tarbell and Dr. Earl Guver, state alienists, declared they had completed their examinations and were prepared to testify.

Judge Scarlett said he did not think the affidavits of the defense alienists contained sufficient evidence to warrant a continuance and that the alienists could be brought into court tomorrow to testify further if the defense attorneys wished.

Bolt Strikes
Plane; Pilot,
Dazed, Unhurt

DePue Springs, Fla., July 11.—(AP)—Knocked unconscious by a bolt of lightning that struck his airplane, sending it spinning several hundred feet out of control to crash in a woods near here, Jack Morris, 24-year-old pilot, was alive tonight and none the worse for his experience except the loss of his plane.

Morris, who started a flying course in Ann Arbor, Mich., three years ago and completed it recently in St. Louis, had taken off from a field here to test out a newly purchased plane when he encountered a sudden rain squall near Glendale.

With visibility extremely poor and his gasoline supply near exhausted, Morris was looking around for a place to land when a bolt of lightning struck his motor. He was knocked unconscious and, strapped into the pilot's seat, went spinning to the ground to crash in a woods near Glendale.

"The first thing I remember after that," said Morris in recounting his experience, "was when I was picking myself out of the wreckage. The plane was completely washed out but I came through without a scratch."

"Before the lightning struck my plane I noticed that I was almost out of gas. If I had flown two minutes more my tank would have been dry."

Morris said the plane did not ignite when the lightning struck, but that his motor stopped instantly. After that, he said, everything was "blank" to him until he regained consciousness in the wreckage of his plane.

Morris, who lives with his family here, said the accident had not affected his nerve and that he was anxious to "get back into the air again."

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, two sons, two grandchildren, one sister and three brothers.

CITY HALL WIRING CHANGE APPROVED

Ragsdale States That When He Signed Paper He Thought
City Would Get Rebate.

When Mayor I. N. Ragsdale attached his signature of approval to the paper passed July 1 by council to "clarify" specifications for installation of electrical wiring in Atlanta's new $1,000,000 city hall, he was under the impression that the city would get a rebate of about $4,000, representing the difference in the cost of equipment, he declared Thursday following a meeting of the city hall committee of city council at which the committee voted an endorsement of the change.

"I was under the impression that the city would get a good product and that it also would get the difference between the price of wires, which had been discussed," Mr. Ragsdale said.

"Wire producers and others had told me that the price of okonite wiring, or its equal, was more expensive than other good wires. I was under the impression that the difference in the prices would revert to the city, but am now informed that the city will get no credit. Unless the city would benefit, I can see no reason to change the specifications."

Denies Charge.

Councilman Howard C. McCutcheon, of the second ward and chairman of the city hall committee, denied at the meeting of the committee Thursday that the specifications had been changed or that the standard of the product to be installed had been lowered.

"This paper was introduced to clarify the specifications and not to change them," Mr. McCutcheon said. "It was done to permit competitive bidding."

G. L. Preacher, however, stated that specifications of okonite differed from the ones which council passed.

Original specifications called for installation of "okonite or its equal," and a battle of wire manufacturing concerns has been in progress for the past several weeks.

Alderman G. Everett Millican, a member of the city hall committee, stated Thursday night that he would make further inquiries into the specifications before announcing what he would do.

Not Familiar With Fight.

"I have just been appointed a member of the committee, and am not familiar with the fight, but I will familiarize myself with it within the next few days," Mr. Millican said.

He then will be in a position to take a stand in the matter. I understand that no permit to install any electrical work in the new city hall is on file in the city electrician's office, and that he has made no inspection. I want to look into this, too."

Manufacturers of okonite filed an injunction to prevent the city from releasing specifications and laboratory tests of okonite to other contractors when the city hall committee, several weeks ago, ordered Mr. Preacher to place them at the disposal of other wire manufacturing concerns so that they might make a wire to equal it.

At that time Dewey White, in charge of sales, declared he thought it unfair to force the Okonite company to pay for the tests and then submit them to competing companies.

He held that samples of the product could be procured if other dealers wanted them and analyses could be made, which could give them every advantage they could get from specifications furnished by the Okonite company.

YOUTH WHO FELL FROM WHEEL DIES AT CITY HOSPITAL

Funeral services for Ernest W. Linch, Jr., 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Linch, 747 Formwalt street, who died early Thursday morning from injuries received when he fell from a bicycle Wednesday afternoon, will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Cooper Street Baptist church. Rev. W. N. Abbott and Rev. W. J. Jackson will officiate and burial will be in West View cemetery.

Linch came home Wednesday afternoon but denied feeling any pain. Later in the night he was found unconscious. He was rushed to Grady hospital where he was partially revived. He then told of his fall from the bicycle for the first time.

FINCHLEY'S TO HOLD MID-SUMMER SALE

Atlanta Store Departs From Policy of Long Standing in Opening Event Today.

Departing from a policy of long standing, Finchley's, at 66 Whitehall street, has announced special mid-summer clearance sale for today and Saturday with storewide reductions in effect.

Since the establishing of the present store Finchley's has never held sales, it being the policy of the management that uniformly reasonable prices were better to keep stocks moving than period of reduction separated by longer periods during which the prices were high.

An exceptionally large summer stock and the desire to fill the shelves with a new stock of fall and winter goods led the management to the decision to hold a clearance sale. This sale, officials of the company say, is designed to move the summer stock in the shortest possible time, since substantial reductions from the usual low prices will be in effect in every department of the store.

The sale will start with the opening of the store at 9 o'clock, this morning and will continue through until closing time Saturday night. Special arrangements have been made to care for a large crowd of shopping-wise persons who are expected to come early and often to take advantage of the values offered by Finchley's first semi-annual sale.

Carrollton, Ala., July 11.—(P)—Mrs. S. F. Allen, wife of the warden of the Pickens county jail here, late yesterday caused the recapture of two prisoners who had made a break for liberty after choking and beating her husband unconscious.

The men were met at the jail entrance by Mrs. Allen. She was thrust aside but not investigating what had happened inside the jail she rounded up a posse of officers and citizens, resulting in the capture of the men a short distance from the jail.

The prisoners, Alvin Cook and Edward Healer, were awaiting trial on charges of having burglarized a store at Aliceville, Ala.

DAVID H. MOBLEY, 89, VETERAN OF GRAY, DIES

David H. Mobley, 89, pioneer Georgian and the last survivor of his company in the Civil War, died at the residence, 403 South McDonough street, Decatur, late Thursday afternoon. Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist church, Decatur, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, with Dr. J. Wiley Quillian officiating. Burial will be in Decatur cemetery. Ed Bond & Condon Company, funeral directors, in charge.

Born in Walton county, June 18, 1840, Mr. Mobley lived to be the last survivor of Company G, 35th Georgia regiment of the Confederacy. He was a member of General Thomas' brigade and fought in the battle of Gettysburg and other major battles. He was wounded at the battle of the Wilderness.

A pioneer school teacher and minister for 40 years, Mr. Mobley supervised the education of many of the most prominent men in Atlanta when he taught at Jackson many years ago. He had lived only about 10 years in Decatur, coming here from Social Circle. His was the first death in the family in 41 years.

Mr. Mobley often contributed to newspapers under the pen name, "Old Confed." He is an uncle of Albert B. Mobley, Georgia state superintendent of banks.

Surviving him are his wife, eight daughters, Mrs. Cora Haralson, Mrs. William L. Steed, Mrs. D. S. Patrick, Mrs. W. O. Houston, Mrs. T. C. Parker, Mrs. O. L. Harris, Misses Winnie Davis Mobley and Laura Mobley; five sons, J. B. C. J., T. P. M. F., and Harvey Mobley; one brother, Robert L. LAWYER KNEW SLAYERS; CLIENT SEEKS FEE RETURN

Rockford, Ill., July 11.—(P)—A strange sequel from the famous case of Henry D. Olson, found to be innocent of killing a filling station agent after being convicted of the crime and sentenced to prison, was begun here today.

A fifty-thousand-dollar damage suit against the lawyer who defended Olson, Henry B. North, was filed by Olson, who charges that North knew the real slayers and permitted Olson to make the long fight for his life and receive the prison sentence.

After his conviction, Olson jumped his bond and did not know the real slayers, two Rockford youths who are now in prison, had been found until he read the Associated Press account, telling him he might go home, in a New Orleans newspaper.

Olson charges that North, a prominent attorney here and formerly state's attorney, defended the Rockford youths, George Bliss and Morris Maham, when they were arrested shortly after the murder of Floyd Stottler, the attendant North declared Olson in his bill, knew the young men were the real killers when Olson was convicted.

North was paid $4,250 for defending Olson, the plaintiff declared. He asserted North handled the case improperly and permitted him to serve a long jail sentence in solitary confinement and on poor food, which he claims injured his health.

After the boys confessed the killing, Olson returned to Rockford, appeared in court, and was declared innocent.

EULA CHARGES ILLEGAL EXECUTION OF HUSBAND

Woman Prisoner Sues Officers for $50,000 for "Kidnaping" Mate.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 11.—(P)—Mrs. Eula Mae Thompson, now serving a life sentence for murder in the state penitentiary at Nashville, today asked $50,000 for the alleged illegal execution of her husband, Clifford Thompson, in a suit filed in United States district court here against four Tennessee officers who, she said, transported him to a Georgia jail. Mrs. Thompson charged that the officers "kidnaped" her husband and took him from Tennessee "without legal extradition papers and against his protests."

The suit names James Butler, Thomas Fuller, Bill Grubbs, and Reeler Jenkins. It was filed by an Atlanta attorney.

Thompson and his wife, a negro, James Moss, were convicted and sentenced to death for the killing of Coleman Osborne, storekeeper of Chattanooga, Ga., in the summer of 1927.

WOMAN INJURED SERIOUSLY BY TOY BOMB ON CAR TRACK

Memphis, July 11.—(P)—Partially deafened and her legs and arms shattered with fragments, Mrs. J. W. Young, 36, was in a serious condition at her home here tonight, the victim, police believe, of a toy "bomb" made out of pieces of lead and a dynamite cap and placed on a street car track.

Mrs. Young had alighted from the car when the explosion occurred. She was thrown to the street by the force of the blast. Passing motorists took her to a hospital, where the lead fragments were removed.

Police expressed belief that boys had attempted to make a torpedo and did not realize the danger in which they placed passengers of the car.

CASE AGAINST RUPP MAY BE DROPPED BY NAVY DEPT.

Washington, July 11.—(P)—Charges against Henry Sherwin Rupp, 19, of Long Beach, Cal., who was arrested for employing another boy to substitute for him in physical examinations for entrance into the Naval academy, probably will be dropped.

Secretary Adams today asked that the case against Rupp be dismissed, following a telegram from Rupp's parents pleading for his release.

Rupp passed the mental examinations for the naval academy but at Annapolis it was found that he was color blind. He persuaded Paul David Schooler, 19, of Washington, to take additional vision tests for him here at the navy department. Authorities grew suspicious and the arrest of the boys on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government followed. Secretary Adams also asked that the charges against Schooler be dismissed.

Philadelphia, July 11.—(P)—Local police stated tonight they had been informed that Robert W. Hicks, under arrest here, is an escaped convict of the Georgia state farm at Milledgeville. They said he would be sent back to Georgia.

Hicks, who claims to be the son of a Georgia railroad president, was arrested here Tuesday at the request of Baltimore police as he was about to open a "joint account" in a bank with a man he had interested in a "business deal." Baltimore police said he had defrauded a man in that city of several hundred dollars by withdrawing funds of a similar bank account.

Police of Greenville, S. C., notified local authorities that Hicks also was wanted there on charges of defrauding a bank of $500. He was said to have been serving a three-year sentence for forgery when he escaped from the Georgia state farm.

R. J. HULSEY.

Three bottles built her up from 85 pounds to 105—a 20-pound gain!—and I've never seen such a remarkable change in a person in my life. She's like an entirely different woman, an, as strong and healthy for her age as anybody I ever saw.

"I suffered from stomach trouble and indigestion for ten years. Everything I ate disagreed with me and I thought many a time I'd just have to quit work. I had terrible headaches and dizzy spells. I did lose six weeks from work last October and was laid up again ten days this past May. My legs from my knees down were so weak and trembly I didn't feel sure of my footing in walking. I had no energy at all. My kidneys seemed affected and got me up at all hours of the night, when I was so nervous I could hardly sleep. I was taking laxatives all the time, on account of constipation.

"Sargon beats anything I ever saw. I can now eat everything my appetite calls for. My kidneys don't bother me, I'm no longer nervous, sleep fine and get up feeling great. I've got my old-time strength and energy back. Sargon Soft Mass Pills completely relieved me of constipation and I quit having headaches and dizzy spells. I haven't lost any time from my job since I started taking Sargon and I feel like a new man.

"Finding Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills was to me just like finding a new lease on life and I'm glad to recommend this wonderful treatment to others."

The above straightforward statement was made recently by R. J. Hulsey, Sr., 1027 Alameda Ave., S. W., Atlanta, who is an employee of the Georgia Railway and Power Co.

Merit and merit alone can explain the phenomenal demand for this remarkable new medicine. The special Sargon representative at Jacobs' main store, 6 and 8 Marietta St., is personally meeting hundreds of people daily who call to learn first hand of its wonderful powers. Sargon may also be obtained at all Jacobs' drug stores throughout Atlanta.—(adv.)

Both Sides of Road Bond Question Will Be Heard Next Wednesday

BY PAUL STEVENSON.
Supporters of the plan to submit a good roads bond issue to the people for a vote and the anti-submissionists will be given a public hearing at 3 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon in the senate chamber by the joint committee on constitutional amendments of the two houses, according to Representative Hamilton McWhorter, of Oglethorpe, chairman.

"We want to give people on both sides of this question a fair, an open and a full hearing," Representative McWhorter said. "To this end we have fixed the opening session for Wednesday and feel that this will give all persons interested ample notice."

This hearing will be the first to be held in which any arguments of any kind will be offered on the bond issue submission question. Thus far the matter has not come up for discussion in either branch of the legislature. The only move thus far made has been the introduction of bills and their reference to committees.

will be enabled to add roads to the map which otherwise they would have to appear before the state highway board at a later day to get."

Senator Shelby Myrick's move in incorporating in his bond issue bill a certified map of the state highway system prepared by the state highway department has met with much favorable comment in both branches. This measure designates exactly the roads to be improved under the bond issue plan and gives each senator and representative opportunities to amend it as they see fit.

"The map as introduced in the bill is by no means arbitrary," Senator Myrick said. The map can be amended so as to include additional roads and by such amendment the people, through their representatives,

ADMITS ASSAULT ON DELIVERY BOY; IS PUT UNDER BOND

"Your honor, I am even more guilty than that and what's more I was right in the middle of a three-day drunk at the time and am just sobering up now."

In this rather startling manner, Owen Albright, of 120 Baker street, answered the charges of assaulting a negro special delivery boy, when he was arraigned before United States Commissioner Griffith Thursday afternoon.

Willie Bush, the boy in question, had just finished relating how he had tried to deliver a letter to the Baker street address when he was accosted by Albright, who insisted on signing for it and then proceeded to scratch up the signature sheet. The affair ended in a tussling match.

Albright told Commissioner Griffith that he had a wife and three children; that he was a salesman and that he had a habit of getting on a "spree" about every three months. The judge replied by placing him under $2,000 bond.

Dawes Renews Discussion Of Disarmament in Visit With Premier MacDonald

Ambassador Refuses To Give Details of Matters Touched Upon in Session.

London, July 11.—(AP)—Disarmament conversations between the United States and Great Britain, initiated as soon as Ambassador Charles G. Dawes reached English shores, were renewed this afternoon when the ambassador spent several hours with Premier Ramsay MacDonald in the premier's private room in the house of commons.

The conversations began by the ambassador's hasty visit to Forbes, Scotland, and his luncheon there with the prime minister, were touched upon again today by the invitation of Premier Ramsay MacDonald. Ambassador Dawes tonight said he had had a talk with the prime minister but could make no further statement at present.

About the same time the following statement was issued from the American embassy:

"When the preparatory commission at Geneva adjourned in May it was for the purpose of giving time for some direct discussions between the governments in regard to the naval problem. The exchanges are now in progress and Mr. Gibson's visit was for consultation in connection with this."

The difficulty facing the government is to provide work for the men who would thereby lose their employment. Ambassador Dawes was closeted with the premier for several hours.

Many Questions Advanced.

A number of important political questions were advanced a stage further today by information given in authoritative quarters or by declarations of ministers in parliament. It has been settled that the conference of foreign ministers to put into operation the Young reparations plan will take place August 6. Responsible circles said that it would be held in London if France consents to it, or possibly in Switzerland if France persists in her opposition to London.

The British government, however, is employing every argument to induce France to accept London as the meeting place, because it would be highly inconvenient for members of the British cabinet to leave London during the busy parliament session.

Active steps are being taken this week to open conversations with Soviet Russia for the resumption of trade and commercial relations and the re-establishment of services for diplomatic relations. The government hopes that Russia will send representatives to London by the end of July to continue conversations on the spot.

In this connection Home Secretary John R. Clynes today announced in the house of commons the cabinet's decision not to permit Leon Trotsky, exiled bolshevik leader, to visit England. The decision aroused many protests in the house from members eager to uphold England's reputation as a sanctuary for political exiles. It was understood in the lobbies of the house of commons tonight that the labor government will further consider modifications to the naval construction program left over by the conservative government in cabinet meetings.

KING'S SHIPMATE, CRAIGWELL HOUSE VISITOR, DIES

Bognor, Eng., July 11.—(AP)—William King, shipmate of King George aboard the old warship Bacchante a half century ago, and a visitor at Craigwell House while the king was here in April, died today.

King was a boatswain on the Bacchante when his majesty, the Duke of York, was serving on the same ship. The one-time boatswain, whose home is here, took the opportunity of making a visit to Craigwell House on April 11 to have a chat concerning old times, King George being particularly interested in the Bacchante's logbook which the veteran sailor had brought with him.

LEE GIVES BOND ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Memphis, Tenn., July 11.—(AP)—Captain G. Peters Lee, president of the Valley Line Steams, Inc., a Mississippi river transportation firm, was free under bond today on charges of violation of the liquor law, possession and storage of whiskey and conspiracy to violate the liquor law. Captain Lee was arrested in a recent raid on the Lee wharf boat here. Officers said they found whiskey stored on the boat. He and a watchman, W. H. Helms, were held to the state. Both were granted bond.

TROTSKY IS DENIED VISIT TO ENGLAND

Home Secretary Decides Against Permitting Exiled Leader To Enter Britain.

London, July 11.—(AP)—Home Secretary Clynes announced in the house of commons this afternoon that he had decided against allowing Leon Trotsky, exiled communist leader, to visit Great Britain.

The newly-formed labor government scarcely had assumed power last month when Trotsky, apparently hoping that the laborites would be more sympathetic to his request than the former conservative government, asked Ramsay MacDonald, the premier, for authorization to visit England "for urgent medical treatment and scientific work."

The matter was referred to the home secretary's department. Trotsky for several years has been actively in opposition against the Stalin regime in Russia and was definitely exiled in Russian Turkestan last year. He finally was permitted to go to Constantinople where he has been living for the past six months, meanwhile making efforts to find sanctuary elsewhere.

The former red army leader first sought permission to go to Germany to consult physicians who once operated on him, but the Berlin cabinet after much discussion decided to bar him. He tried several other countries without success and with the advent of the labor government decided to make an appeal for entry into England.

CURTIS EXPLAINS POLITICAL CREED IN DINNER TALK

Topeka, Kan., July 11.—(AP)—Vice President Curtis, home on a vacation, explained his political creed at a dinner given in his honor last night by Roy L. Bone, former Kansas bank commissioner. Sixty life-long friends attended.

"I began my political career with the idea of being absolutely honest with the people whose votes I sought," the vice president said. "I have always believed and I still believe the people are entitled to know what a public official's views and opinions are at all times on public questions. I also have always believed that when people asked something done, they are entitled to know whether or not I believed I could do it for them."

Among those at the dinner were Senators Arthur Capper and Henry J. Allen and Governor Clyde M. Reed.

ELEVEN KILLED IN BENZINE BLAST IN RIGA RED CROSS

Riga, Latvia, July 11.—(AP)—Eleven persons were killed today at Odessa when benzine exploded in the Red Cross Rubber Works there. The two-story building collapsed.

There has been no discussion in regard to the price of the location, it was stated, but this matter will come up after it has been learned if the other features which are desired by the federal officials can be agreed to.

Both conferences, it is stated, will be held in Washington and it is expected that some high officer of the railroad will come here to take the matter up.

FEDERAL CHIEFS FAVOR C. OF GA. SITE, REPORT

Conference Will Be Held With Railroad Officials Regarding Changes Needed.

Washington, July 11.—(Special).—While no decision in regard to the site for the new Atlanta postoffice has yet been made, attention of the treasury department officials in charge of this matter has turned to the location offered by the Central railway of Georgia, it was learned here today.

At the present time architects of the department are drawing a series of sketches of the proposed building which will be completed within a week. The next step to be taken will be a conference with the officials of the Terminal Company to ascertain if they are willing to make certain changes which will be needed in case the Central of Georgia site is decided upon. This will be followed, in perhaps about ten days, by conference with the railway officials at which it is expected that a number of preliminary matters will be discussed.

NEAR AVERAGE

The month of June was generally favorable for cultivation and development of crops and reported condition for all crops on July 1—with the exception of fruits and pecans—was better than for the same date one year ago.

Farmers labored under a severe handicap this year in preparation of land and in securing stands, due to late spring rains, wind damage and accompanying cool temperatures. However, substantial recovery from those unfavorable factors is now taking place. This is an "off year" for all the fruit crops and production is very short.

Corn Report Better.
Reported condition of corn is 80 per cent, as compared with 68 per cent last July and the 10-year average of 78 per cent. Acreage shows a 1 per cent increase over 1928, or a total of 3,656,000 acres, and the indicated crop is placed at 49,722,000 bushels, as compared with the short 1928 crop.

of 38,010,000 bushels and 49,290,000 bushels for the five-year average, 1923-1927.

Wheat acreage harvested this year was 10 per cent greater than last season and estimated production of 1,030,000 bushels upon the 103,000 acres harvested compares with 1,034,000 bushels in 1928 and the five-year

Production last year was only 5,300,000 bushels, or 35 per cent below average production for the five-year period.

15 Per Cent Decrease in Tobacco.
Estimated acreage of tobacco shows 15 per cent decrease from the record 1928 figure. On the 104,000 acres the indicated crop is 77,750,000 pounds, as compared with 84,387,000 pounds last year, or a yield per acre of 748 pounds against final yield of 690 pounds in 1928.

Condition of the current crop is 83 per cent, as against 78 per cent July 1, 1928. Acreage for nuts this year will depend on the percentage of total acreage that will be utilized for this purpose.

Peaches Fall Short.

Reported at only 34 per cent of a full crop. This has been a year of steady decline for peach prospects with the advancement of the season. In April growers reported 84 per cent, in May 60 per cent and in June the indication had dropped to 40 per cent. Rains at blooming time, the heaviest curculio infestation in years and windstorm damage in late April and early May all combined in making this the shortest crop since 1920. The next lowest crop was in 1917.

Indicated production of the total agricultural crop is 3,835,000 bushels, as compared with the record of 10,000,000 bushels last season.

Perils of Air Mail Trails Related in Special Series

The Constitution presents the twenty-seventh of a series of articles which show the dangers attending the duties of Rough Riders of the Air Mail, written exclusively by air mail pilots for The Constitution and the North American Newspaper Alliance. This interesting feature will be carried daily.

BY DORSEY A. ASKEW,
Mail Pilot for National Air Transport,
on Kansas City-Dallas Run.
A GRUESOME FLIGHT.

(Copyright, 1929, by the North American Newspaper Alliance.)
My weirdest flying experience occurred shortly before I entered the mail service. I have had plenty of exciting moments on mail runs, but this little incident, down in Texas, always sticks out in my mind.

After having barnstormed over about half the states in the Union I got a job flying for a doctor who operated a sanitarium at Ardmore, Okla. This doctor needed a plane and pilot because his practice had spread so far throughout the southwest that he often was called to make trips of two or three hundred miles, and he didn't have time for trains and automobiles.

Once the doctor asked me to fly to Breckenridge, Texas, to get a patient there and fly him back to the sanitarium. I flew down and I was met at the field by an ambulance with several attendants.

Naturally, I was not surprised that they had to lift the patient off the stretcher and put him into the cockpit. They had just finished strapping him in when he lapsed into unconsciousness. As I took off he died.

I had orders to take him back to the sanitarium, so I flew on anyhow. But it was a strange feeling to sit there in the cockpit and fly the plane and watch that man's head roll from side to side as I took the bumps.

I'll take the worst of air mail flying any time rather than repeat that experience.

The City Salesmen's Association will meet at 11:30 o'clock Saturday morning at the city hall to discuss plans for the annual barbeque and "country store" entertainment.

BUILDING AND LOAN GROUPS ARE LAUDED IN JAYCEE SPEECH

Formation of additional building and loan associations in Georgia and better support for those now in existence would prove of immeasurable benefit to the state in many ways, principally in stopping the flow of capital to eastern financial centers, Horace Russell, vice president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, told the junior organization at its weekly luncheon meeting Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Russell's speech was the principal feature of the program which included entertainment provided by Miss "Spot" Perkins, of Augusta, who sang several "blues" numbers, and Rudy Lehman, former Atlanta baritone. R. J. Reynolds, Jr., presided.

It was announced that next week's meeting would be a joint meeting with the senior chamber at which time Senator Georgia is to address the gathering.

SON WILL LECTURE HERE ON CAREER OF COUNT TOLSTOY

An intimate story of the life of the famed Russian novelist and philosopher, Count Leo Tolstoy, will be told in an address to be given by Count Ilya Tolstoy, the author's son, at 8 o'clock Saturday night at the Emory university Theological building.

Count Tolstoy is well known as a lecturer and is familiar with the present Russian situation. In addition to his reminiscences of his father's life, Count Tolstoy probably will discuss the soviet government. Arrangements for his appearance here were made by Professor Pierre Porohovskikov, who now is an associate professor at Emory and formerly was a close friend of the younger Tolstoy in Russia.

REVISION OF LAWS ON POOL ROOMS THOUGHT IMMINENT

Revision of ordinances governing conduct of poolrooms in Atlanta was imminent Thursday following a meeting of the police committee of city council Wednesday night at which it was indicated that many of the establishments will be closed, or required to change their mode of operation.

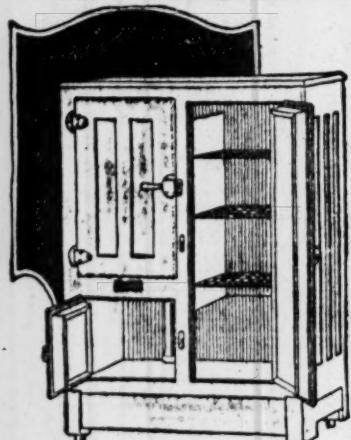

An ordinance forbidding lunch rooms to be operated in connection with poolrooms and the selling of sandwiches through windows in which the rooms are located will be offered to city council Monday, Councilman Harry York, of the sixth ward and a member of the committee, said.

Sales through the windows obstruct sidewalks, he held.

Miss Caveny and Mr. Martin Married at Home Ceremony

A social event of interest to a wide circle of relatives and friends throughout Georgia and West Virginia was the wedding of Miss Nell Caveny and W. Beckett Martin, of Huntington, W. Va.

The nuptials were solemnized at 8:30 Thursday evening, July 11, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Caveny. The marriage ceremony was read by the groom's father, Rev. A. M. Martin, of Huntington, W. Va., assisted by the bride's uncle, Rev. W. A. Stephenson, of Piedmont, S. C.

The front of the house was artistically decorated with a profusion of garden flowers. The improvised altar was arranged at one end of the living room. This was banked with stately palms and ferns forming a soft background for the pink gladioli which added color to the scene. A striking arrangement of branched candelabra, tied with white tulle and bearing cathedral candles, cast a soft glow over the bridal party.

Preceding the ceremony a beautiful musical program was rendered by Mrs. Z. T. Duke and Mrs. N. G. Baggett.

As the strains of the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" sounded, the candles were lighted by Miss Carol Hutcherson. The maid of honor, Miss Ruby Clinkscales, entered alone. She was attractively gowned in pink chiffon, lace trimmings, made bouffant style, while her bouquet was of Columbia roses. As the bride entered on the arm of her father, the bridegroom, with his best man, Dr. J. A. McCallum, of Brookhaven, Miss., took his place before the altar.

The radiant beauty of the bride was enhanced by her gown of white satin, fashioned with a long fitted waist, having a yoke of tulle embroidered with seed pearls. The full skirt, having an uneven hemline lengthened by tulle with a design in satin, was embroidered with seed pearls. Her soft tulle veil was caught with a band of orange blossoms and her white satin slippers were fashioned with orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room where the color scheme of pink and white was attractively carried out. The table was exquisite in all its appointments.

pointments. Dainty comforts held pink and white minis, while in the center of the table was the bride's cake, beautifully embossed with pink and white flowers.

Miss Virginia Ramsey presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Caveny, the bride's mother, was becomingly attired in a gown of black chiffon.

The couple left immediately afterward for a motor trip through northern states. The bride traveled in a navy blue georgette ensemble with hat, shoes and accessories in sun tan.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will make their home in Atlanta where Mr. Martin is a senior in the Emory university school of medicine.

Local Old Guard Group To Leave For Cruise Today

Nearly three-score members of Atlanta's Old Guard, with their wives, will leave Atlanta at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon for New Orleans, where they will board the steamer that is to carry them on their third Caribbean cruise.

The ship, the Parissima, is a unit in the Great White Fleet, of the United Fruit Company, and she will leave the Crescent City at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. The itinerary includes stops at every principal Caribbean port and brief stops at the points of greatest interest. The party will return to New Orleans on July 29 and to Atlanta on the following day. The cruise has been arranged by W. M. Camp, commander of the Old Guard.

The first port of call is Havana, Cuba, where a stop of two days will be made, during which excursions to points of historic interest and social affairs will be enjoyed. Cristobal, Panama Canal Zone, will be the next stop and here the party will be taken on a tour over a portion of the famed canal. The ship will next put in at Puerto Barrios, Guatemala, and after a brief stop will turn back to Havana, remaining there for a few hours before the return to New Orleans.

According to Commander Camp this year's cruise shows every indication of being the most interesting and enjoyable of any yet made by the Old Guard. In particular, Mr. Camp said, the details of the shore entertainment for the visitors at the various ports promise to be exceptionally enjoyable.

THIS MORNING I TOOK A WALK TO CLARENCE WILKS HOUSE. I WANTED TO SEE WHAT JACK HOWARD, WHO CLARENCE WANTS ME TO WHIP, LOOKS LIKE. I MET A FELLOW ON THE CORNER. I SAID, "HOWDY," AND HE SAID, "HOWDY,"

HE LAUGHED IN MY FACE AND SAID, "IF YOU BUM AROUND WITH SISSIES I HAVEN'T MUCH USE FOR YOU!" I SAID, "SHUT UP FELLOW! YOU CAN'T TALK ABOUT A FRIEND OF MINE—" JUST THEN WHO SHOULD TURN THE CORNER BUT CLARENCE HIMSELF.

CLARENCE MAY BE A BUM FIGHTER BUT HE'S A CHAMPION RUNNER. JACK TOOK OUT AFTER HIM BUT CLARENCE GOT AWAY AND RAN INTO HIS HOUSE YELLING, "MOM, OH MOM!" IT MADE ME DISGUSTED WITH HIM. I TURNED AROUND AND WENT HOME.

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

MRS. BOB'S MOST ANXIOUS DAY.

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Anxiety is mother's lot.

Increased with every little tot.

—Mrs. Bob White.

There came a day when from the time jolly, round, bright Mr. Sun first peeped up over the trees of the Green

"My dear," said he to Mrs. Reddy, "do you hear Bob White?"

Forest little Mrs. Bob White was filled with anxiety. She had sat on her nest while her greatest enemies had been so close that she could almost touch them. Yet she hadn't been nervous. She had been anxious, of course, but she hadn't been nervous. This morning, however, she was nervous. You see, she knew that this was to be a very great day. A very happy event was to take place that day. Perhaps it would be nearer the truth to say that many happy events were to take place that day. She knew it, because she had heard certain little sounds which told her that where she had had only eggs for so long, she was now to have little fluffy babies.

It was just after jolly, round, bright Mr. Sun had started climbing up in the blue, blue sky above the Green Forest that the first egg was chipped open and finally fell into two parts, and the dearest of little babies stretched his neck out and kicked his wee little legs for the first time. And, strange to say, he was all ready to run out in the Great World. This was why Mrs. Bob was so anxious and so nervous. What if one of those enemies should come along today? She might keep still herself, but could she keep her babies still?

Hardly was the first little Bob White out of his shell when another egg cracked, and soon several were showing signs of being broken open. Mrs. Bob fairly trembled with anxiety as she watched over that nestful of eggs and saw one baby after another come out. Bob came around to see what the news was and he, too, became nervous.

"I'll tell you what it is," said Bob White. "I'll keep watch. I'll sit up in that tree, instead of on the fence post, and I'll give you warning if I see any enemy that I can lead aside. I'll do that. Meanwhile, you stay right with the babies, my dear. My, my, aren't they wonderful?"

Mrs. Bob White agreed that they were, indeed, wonderful, and she agreed with Bob that his plan was an excellent one. So Bob flew up in a tree to keep watch. But he couldn't keep his tongue still. He had to whistle his joy. Yes, sir, he just had to whistle his joy. So, though he thought he was keeping his secret, he was in a way telling it. "Way over in the Old Pasture Reddy Fox pricked up his ears."

"My dear," said he to Mrs. Reddy, "do you hear Bob White? If I know anything about it, Bob is unusually happy and that can mean but one thing—those eggs have hatched. Now we shall have to do some looking about over there. I can't think of anything that would taste better than a dinner of young Bob Whites. We ought to be able to get some of them for Bob usually has a big family and some of them are bound to be careless."

Bob and Mrs. Bob did have a big family. There were 16 of those babies when the last egg hatched. Yes, sir, there were 16 little Bob Whites, and very little they were. It didn't seem as if such tiny folk just out of the shell could be strong enough to run about. But they were. Yes, sir, they were! What is more, they wanted to run about. Their mother had hard work to keep the older ones from straying away before the last eggs had hatched. Do you wonder that she spent a most anxious day?

The next story: "A Happy Little Family."

FRAUD IS CHARGED TO RECOVER HOUSE IN SUIT BY WOMAN

A suit to recover a duplex house deeded to her daughter, Mrs. Sue Clark, was filed Thursday in Fulton superior court by Mrs. Fannie Mize on the ground that she thought she was signing a will when in fact she signed a deed.

Mrs. Mize alleges that her son-in-law, George Clark, induced her to will the duplex house to her daughter, just that instead of a will Clark had her sign a warranty deed, and prevented her from reading the paper before she signed it. The property in question is located at 200 West North avenue, N. W., according to the petition. Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy ordered Mrs. Mize to collect the rents and turn the rents over to the clerk of court pending disposition of the case. The petition was filed by Attorney C. W. Buchanan.

Branch & Howard filed the petition.

PULLMAN PLANES NEXT STEP, LINDY STATES

Colonel Declares Company To Install Sleeping Service in Year.

San Francisco, July 11.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh declared in an interview here last night that within six months or a year his company, the Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc., would put "Pullman air-planes" into its cross-country air-rail passenger service.

Tests are being made, Colonel Lindbergh said, with this type of passenger airplane, equipped both with two and four engines. The colonel declared that tri-motored planes were fast heading toward obsolescence.

The use of Pullman sleepers, he said, would result in an all-air service between San Francisco and Columbus, Ohio, and that the distance would be covered in two nights and one business day. Passengers for the east coast would entrain at Columbus and cross the eastern mountains by rail, thus avoiding flying over an area which he said was a hazardous one for aviation because of atmospheric conditions.

Colonel Lindbergh predicted that within two years every major city in the United States would have air connections to a transcontinental airplane passenger route. He declared his company would inaugurate a 35-hour air-rail passenger service from San Francisco to New York in the future. He flew here yesterday, opening the Los Angeles-San Francisco leg of the company's new route.

ACTOR ANSWERS WIFE'S PLEA; SEEKS DIVORCE DECREE

Los Angeles, July 11.—(AP)—Emmett Corrigan, actor, known in private life as Anthony N. Zilles, has filed answer to a suit of Mrs. Mary Irene Zilles, for separate maintenance. In his reply, Corrigan denied all of his wife's charges of cruelty and asked that a divorce be granted him on the ground of desertion.

The actor declared he had come to California in 1922 from New York and that he had sent his wife money regularly. In 1926 he informed her, he declared, that unless she made her home here he would refuse further financial settlements. She declined to leave New York, he affirmed.

Mooney Wins Fifth Cotton States Net Title; Crackers Subdue Chattanooga in Opener, 6-4

ATLANTA ACE BEATS BRYAN IN FIVE SETS

Chattanooga Star Unable To Stand Jack's Consistent Attack.

Anniston, Ala., July 11.—(AP)—Jack Mooney, Atlanta net star, successfully defended the title he has held for the past four years today by defeating Robert "Lefty" Bryan, of Chattanooga, in the singles final of the Cotton States Tennis Association matches here.

The match was carried to five sets and the score was 6-3, 6-4, 6-1, 5-7, 6-4. Bryan played well to take the first set while Mooney went after the second as the Chattanooga youth displayed an excellent placement game. Bryan, however, was unable to withstand the attack of the veteran Mooney and faltered in the final set, serving doubles to decide the match after deuceing the game a half dozen times. It was the first meeting of the two players.

Jimmie Halverstadt, of Atlanta, will meet Bryan tomorrow to decide the junior singles championship of the meet. Halverstadt today defeated Kendall Cram, of Nashville, in the semi-finals and Bryan disposed of Ed Newell, his fellow townsman.

Harry Gault and Mooney will play Kels and A. Boland for the doubles championship tomorrow morning. The Bolands defeated Enlow and Boykin yesterday and Gault and Mooney eliminated A. and J. Halverstadt.

The meet will close with the doubles and junior championship matches tomorrow.

Headley Stable Goes on Block

Chicago, July 11.—(United News)—Chicago sportsmen are highly interested in the announcement here today that Hal Price Headley, one of the most successful turfmen in the west, will place nearly his entire stable on sale Saturday.

All horses now in training under the Headley colors at Arlington Park, with the exception of four, will go on the block, Headley said.

This was considered one of the most important events of the western turf season inasmuch as Headley's horses have been consistent winners and are in condition to race right now. The stable, up to July 6, had returned Headley 17 victories in a year, a record without precedent in the annals of the western turf.

Among the horses to be sold are Paraphrase, Pigeon Hole, Amsterdam, Superlove, Big Chief, Beaumont, Soiree, Piedmont, Selection, Rip Field, Betty Ann, Hebe and Long Lashes.

The four fillies Alcibiades, Essie, Miss Peggy and Peggy Mac will be retained for the Beaumont stud.

Travelers Buy Mandy Brooks

Oakland, Cal., July 11.—(AP)—Sale of Mandy Brooks, centerfielder, to Little Rock of the Southern association, was announced today by J. C. Ewing, president of the Oakland club of the Pacific coast league.

Brooks came to Oakland last midseason from Nashville, in the same circuit to which he is returning. His hitting slumped badly this year.

Don Moe Goes Into Semi-Finals

Kansas City, July 11.—(AP)—The courageous uphill battle of Don Moe, of Portland, Ore., to gain the semi-final round and the rise from comparative obscurity to the top of the Nevada, Mo., to fight his way into the same round were outstanding events today in the thirtieth annual western amateur golf tournament.

Four down to Carey L. Ballew, Jr., of Kansas City, at the end of the morning 18, the University of Oregon sophomore was as steady in the afternoon as he was erratic in the morning. He won four holes in a row to end the match on the thirty-third green 4 to 3.

Carter won 2 and 1 from Lawrence Muller, of Quincy, Ill., John Lehman, Gary, Ind., was forced to go to the 34th green to win 1 up from A. L. Gust Noots, Chicago.

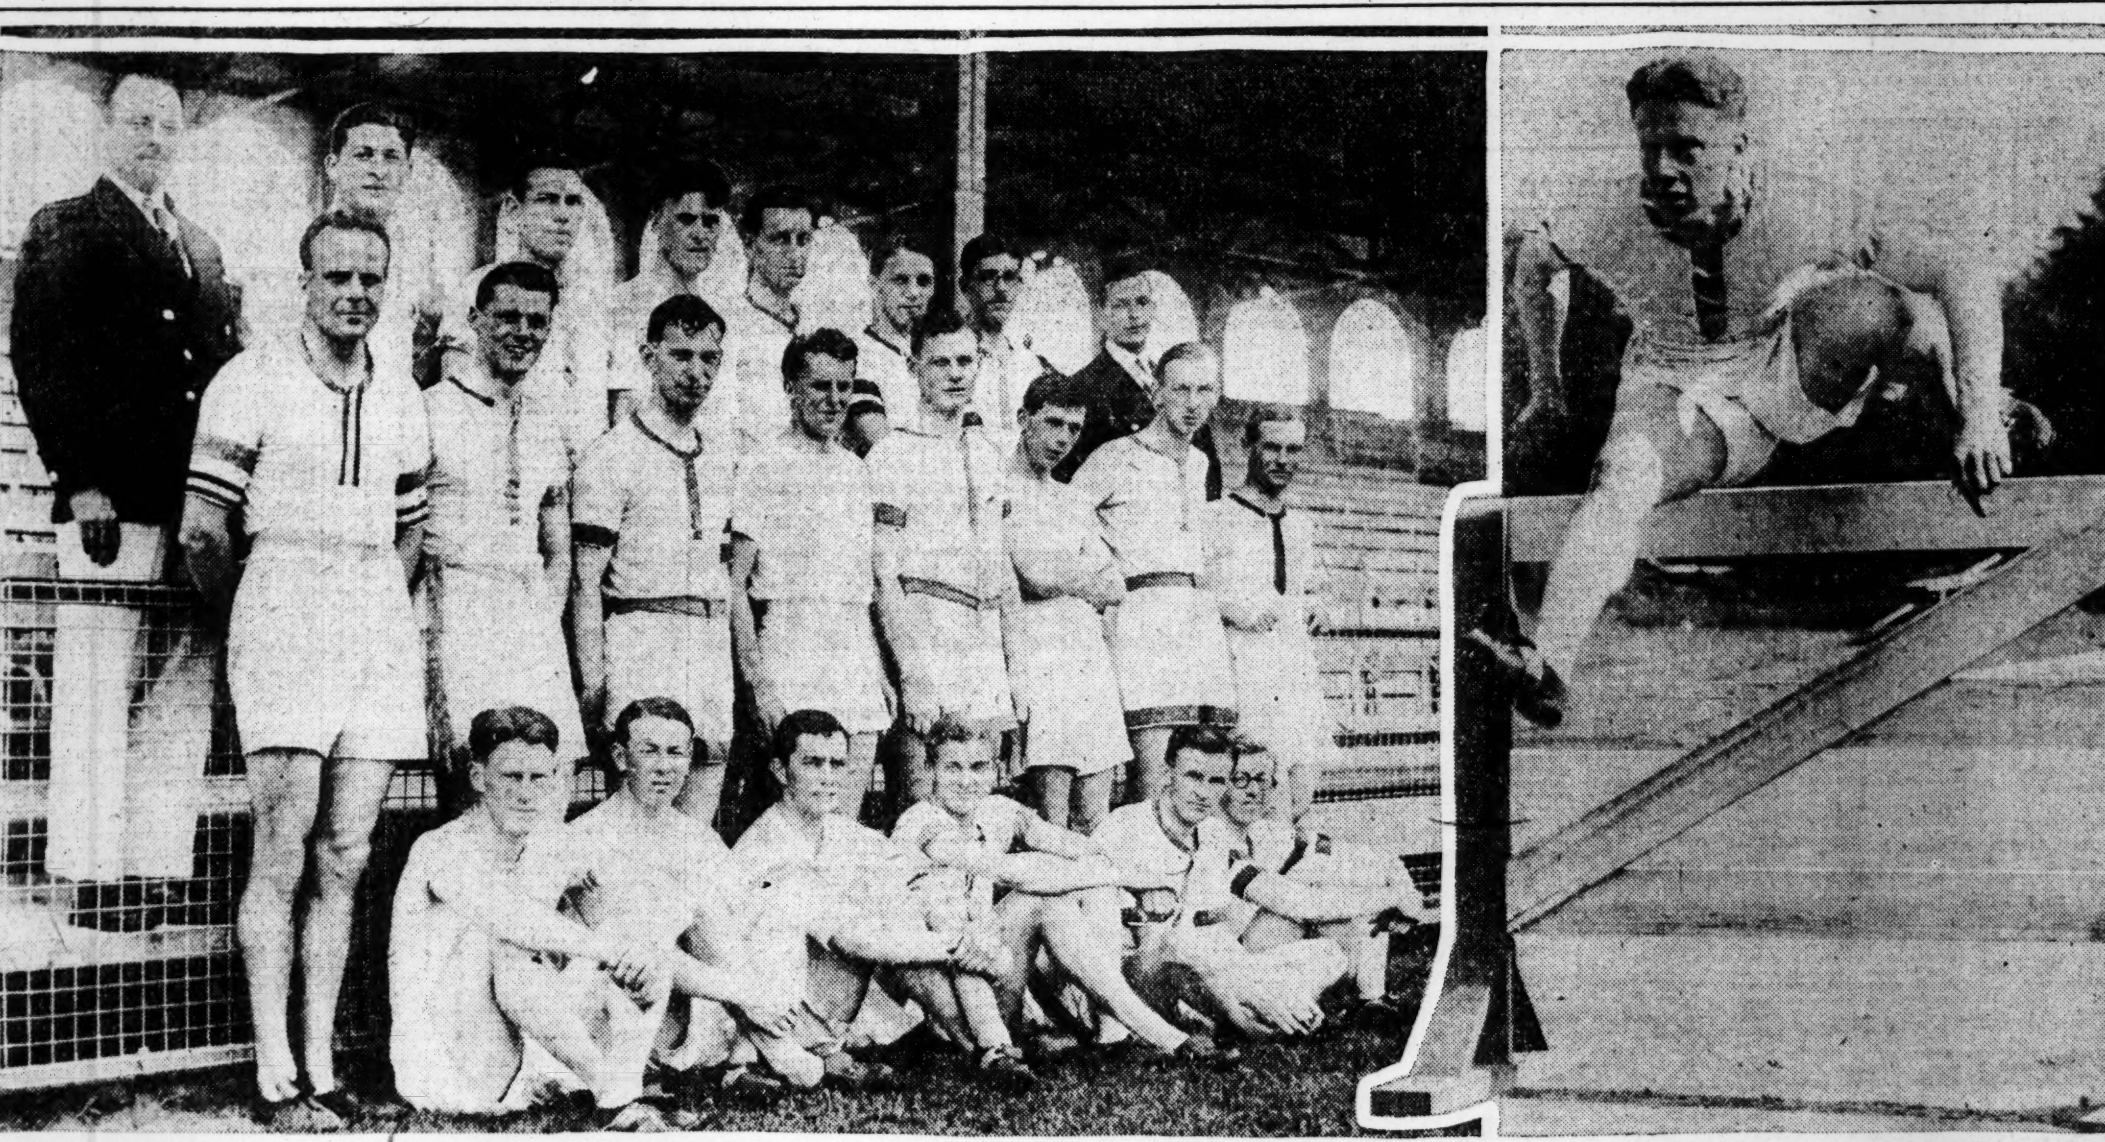

Art Sweet, 33-year-old Chicago golfer writer and older by several years than the other semi-finalists, gained the next to the last round by an overwhelming 8 and 7 victory over H. J. Kaiser, of Racine, Wis.

Tomorrow's 36-hole semi-final rounds being together Moe and Lehman and Sweet and Carter.

Parham Rated Best Prospect

Bob Parham, who is hitting .335 through the Thursday game to lead the Crackers in hitting, is the best young baseball prospect in the Southern league. Wilbur Good reported to R. J. Spiller, president of the Crackers, that other managers had confirmed his own belief that Parham was a great young prospect. He came along in the right manner, starting slowly and improving each day. A. A. Dowling, of Chattanooga and Zeke Bonura are two other college players who are rated along with the ex-Tech star as the big finds of the year. Parham, however, tops them all.

He is the Cambridge high hurdles champion.

Ed Danforth

"Not so very open," replied Charlie Hall, long-hitting professional who teaches Birmingham folks how to play golf, in reply to a dumb question of mine about the recent national open.

"It was Bobby Jones against the field," he went on, "just a two-sided match, Bobby playing our best ball so to speak."

"And don't let anybody tell you the pros resent Bobby's playing and winning so often. A few may croak about the fact that an amateur runs off with what they consider their own prize. But the most of us enjoy the tournament better if Bobby is in it. It adds interest, excitement and color to it. If Bobby were not there the tournament would fall flat. Not a one of us feels anything but admiration for him and none worthy of the name of professional begrudges him his frequent titles."

"And as for the rest of the amateurs—we sort of lose sight of them. They do not count in the final tally."

COACH ALEX HONORED

Charlie Hall was one of the guests at the annual gastronomic riot at the home of Karl Langrebe, the Birmingham steel magnate. Birmingham men of letters and business were there. W. A. Alexander, of Georgia Tech, was the guest of honor. The party, in fact, had been planned last winter by Colonel Langrebe and for one reason or another was put off until last Tuesday night.

Zipp Newman, Birmingham sports writer, produced Henry Pendleton, the champion waffle cook of Bessemer, Enley and points west to compete with Ralph McGill, of The Constitution. The contest was ruled a draw and the prizes awarded to Colonel Langrebe's chef, who served his own private brand of German pancakes with maple syrup as dessert.

Several candidates were initiated into the Merry Medes of Wales, an international organization that never before had had a chapter in Birmingham. All summoned before the examining board guessed right, a truly remarkable record.

GENE COOK

Pete Marzoni, of the Birmingham News, the only Italian-American golf writer in the world, passes the word that Gene Cook, former Atlantan, whose golf game was developed here at West End and at East Lake, is about the best looking golfer in the Alabama state field. Gene had won a flock of friends by his winning personality, Pete added.

DUNN'S FORECAST CAME TRUE

Trammel Scott had a picture in his office showing Jack Dunn, famous as the manager of the modern Baltimore Orioles, seated on horseback at field trials seven years ago.

"I just recalled yesterday a conversation I had with Jack the day that picture was made," Trammel said. "Jack told me that he had a pitcher that one day would be the greatest pitcher in the world. Jack said his southpaw was wild as a March hare, but that in time he would settle down and be worth $100,000 on the market."

Recent quotations, if any, on Lefty Grove are considerably better than $100,000. The Athletics' ace now is being compared to Rube Waddell.

NEWS TOURNNEY DRAWS TO CLOSE

Finals Slated Today in All But Championship, Second Flights.

Championships in all flights except the first and second will be decided today in the annual newspaper golf tourney at Ansley Park in 18-hole matches, while the finals in the championship and second flights will be played early next week, according to the committee in charge. Finals in the championship flight will be over the 36-hole course.

Fighting his way back after an unsteady start, Dick Winchell, of the Georgia, defeating his crown, Thursday afternoon eliminated John Kieffer of the Journal, 2-1, at Ansley Park. Winchell made Angus Perkinson and Linton Hopkins play Roy Fuss in the semi-finals today.

There was a spectacular match in almost every flight Thursday, and with the unusually large number of close matches Wednesday, this tournament has been by far the most hard fought of any series.

Linton Hopkins and Joe Johnson provided another real match in the championship flight, Hopkins winning out one-up on the 18th green. Larry Caudill and A. W. Brewerton furnished the feature match of the second flight, Caudill winning 4 and 3.

Two good matches were played in the fifth flight, Jimmy Parr, of the Constitution, facing almost certain defeat, being four down and five to go, rallied, took four holes in succession and then halved the 18th to make the match all square with W. F. Caldwell, of the Associated Press. Mr. Caldwell had a business engagement and defaulted his match to the Constitution office boy, Carey Wilmer, Jr., and R. T. Dozier were all

Favorites Beaten In Ala. Tourney

Birmingham, Ala., July 11.—(AP)—Favorites fell by the wayside today in the first and second round of play in the annual Alabama Golf Association championship battle and tonight with the field reduced to eight contenders, even the wisest pickers hesitated over naming a favorite.

Sam Perry, southern amateur champion, advanced to the quarter finals by defeating Charles Johnson, of Birmingham, and Jack Shipp, of Anniston. Walter Shearer, of Mobile, disposed of Gene Cook, of Birmingham, in a 20-hole match. Gordon Smith, Jr., of Mobile, dropped out before R. C. Munger, a Birmingham veteran, in a 20-hole match. Walker Fights Losing Battle for Happy Home

Middleweight Champion's Wife Says He Trained on Broadway After Dark.

By Sam Love, United News Staff Correspondent.

Trenton, N. J., July 11.—All the home needed was a gong and a couple of seconds, Mrs. Margaret Kelly Walker, wife of the world's middleweight champion, revealed here today in filing suit against Mickey for separate maintenance and custody of their 5-year-old offspring, Michael.

According to Mrs. Walker, Mickey, who chased Jack Britton out of the picture, kayoed old Mike McGivney in one round and finally knocked the middleweight crown off Tiger Flowers' ebony topknot, also ruled the roost around his own domicile except—

MALLINI MEETS TED GOODRICH

Grover Mallini, a middleweight sensation in New Orleans, will meet Ted Goodrich on next Tuesday night's boxing card, scheduled for the Atlanta theater.

Matchmaker Eddie Hanlon has arranged this bout as one of the two feature fights which will be offered by the matchmaker.

In his second fight Young Jack Dempsey will meet Silent Frank Moran, of New Haven, Conn.

Three other matches will be offered in addition to these two. The card is the best that has been offered here, bringing it down men with good records who have not been seen in action here before.

Mallini has beat Battling Bozo, has kayoed Ted Wilson, beat Jimmy Cox and the next day Mickey vigorously asserted that his wife was merely "visiting her mother."

The reports broke out again on July 6, this time to the effect that Mickey had refused to train for his fight.

The champion proved sensitive about his domestic privates. On the Fourth of July a New York newspaper printed reports of his difficulties and the next day Mickey vigorously asserted that his wife was merely "visiting her mother."

"Moran has a good record," said Hanlon. "I have recommendations on him from other promoters. He and Mallini are new to Atlanta fans. Their records speak for them. Atlanta already knows the other principals. Young Jack Dempsey, Moran, Goodrich and Mallini make up a fight card any city would be glad to see. I am sure the fight fans will like this one."

The fights will be staged in the Atlanta theater. Fans were pleased with the last fight there. It is cool and affords perfect seating accommodations.

SHERIFF STOPS RACES IN OHIO

Sends Armed Posse to Thistlewood To Stop All Gambling.

By Sam Love, United News Staff Correspondent.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 11.—(AP)—Threatened with wholesale arrests of employees and confiscation of property, operators of Thistlewood track temporarily gave up their first attempt in three years to hold a running race meet today in face of Sheriff J. Hanratty's determination to suppress gambling.

After the sheriff marshaled a force of 75 regular and special deputy sheriffs, armed them with tear gas bombs and sawed-off shotguns and instructed them to stop wagering this afternoon, the one-day-old meet was suspended until three men arrested as the result of the use of the "contraband" system of betting are given hearings on charges of gambling.

Announcement of the suspension was made by Edward P. Strong, one of the track owners, held under $300 bond, together with Lloyd Thompson, a ticket seller, and Frank Rock, a cashier, who were arrested after the second race yesterday.

Sheriff Hanratty determined upon stern measures after being reassured by attorneys that an injunction granted yesterday shortly before the meet opened for the first of what was to have been a 22-day program, was not binding upon him if he were confident that the "contraband" system of betting is illegal. The injunction, granted to Strong, restrained the sheriff from interference with the "donation" scheme only if the same he not in violation of the laws of Ohio.

Strong and other operators of the track confessed that the system is legal and works upon the plan of spectators "donating" investments in the horses, and receiving "refunds" above expenses in the event they back the winning runners.

Strib Gets Nod Over DeMave

Knoxville, Tenn., July 11.—(AP)—W. L. (Young) Stribling, Georgia heavyweight, was awarded the decision in an eight-round bout here tonight with Jack DeMave, of Jersey City. The bout having received eight in the last round when the gong ended the fight.

The Georgia heavyweight had an easy time of it all the way through, although he was somewhat cautious until the seventh round, apparently feeling out the Jersey City fighter before cutting loose.

This slowed the bout considerably, but Stribling made it up to the fans in the seventh and eighth round when he lashed out with his familiar short, powerful blows at the easterner's body.

FLASHY WORK ON BASE LINES FEATURES PLAY

Al Lopez Scores From Second on an Infield Out.

By Ralph McGill.

Growing befuddled watching the merry-go-round yesterday afternoon at Spiller field, the Chattanooga Lookouts dropped a ball game to the Crackers, 6 to 4.

The merry-go-round was the base paths and the ponies were the Cracker base runners. Not that they were so many in number but when they did run they went on the lam, so to speak.

Al Lopez, who scored from second on an infield out, was one of the ponies that whirled by so fast the Lookouts were dizzy.

It was a peculiar sort of baseball game, this one of yesterday. The first two balls pitched resulted in a double and a single and one run for the Lookouts.

CULLOP HITS ONE

Nick Cullop, who struck out four times in Birmingham Wednesday, struck out the first three times up Thursday, running his strike-out string to seven in a row. He then doubled, but struck out again on his fifth and last time up. The big fellow went out swinging every time. He was trying.

"I know how he feels," said Red Smith, who once was one of the greatest hitters in the league. "I went to bat 20 straight times without getting a hit one season. A slump is tough. There was a total of six double plays in the game, each team making three.

FREAK HOMERS

Two of the Lookout tallies were peculiar home runs. One skidded off Bob Parham's glove into the stands after he had made a long run for it. Herb Pyle's homer, Sammy Vick hit one to left center that stuck in the wire fence and he beat the throw home.

Al Lopez, who got two doubles and a single in his three times at bat, was the bright star of the Cracker victory. He was playing a gamut of curves as if the stands were full of scouts watching him work.

Bull Rauch, who relieved Don Brennan, was wild yesterday. He pitched in the seventh, pitched magnificent baseball for three innings.

He went into the seventh with no man out and two on base and he emerged without a run being scored off him. They did not get a hit off him in the three full innings in which he pitched and only nine men faced him.

GREAT PITCHING

It was magnificent pitching. Rauch seems to have got what he did not have before control. He always had a fine assortment of curves and a good fast ball. He lacked control. His last two appearances on the hill have shown him to be in possession of control.

The Crackers were all over the ball lot. They were carrying the message to Gary, of the Crackers, that they were upstaging the best laid plans of the Chattanooga baseball squad.

PYLE WILD

Herb Pyle, the flinger who stopped the Crackers for six innings last Saturday, was wild yesterday. He was chucking up that old base-on-balls pitch and they didn't help any. Not only that but he batted Doc Silva on the arm in the second inning with a fast ball and well-nigh cracked the bone. In the fifth inning he skidded a ball into the stands.

The Lookouts grabbed a lead on that most unusual occurrence in the first inning. Two pitched balls produced two base hits and a run.

The Crackers got three men on in the first inning. Doc Silva slipped into third base when Ray Treadaway left it ungarded a moment after the play at first in an effort to catch the flying Bob Parham.

The first double play of the game sponged out two Crackers after Cullop.

Cincinnati-Chicago Row Comes Before Heydler Today for Decision

LOSS OF WILSON WOULD HINDER CUBS' CHANCES

Reds Bent Upon Getting Indefinite Suspension of Husky Outfielder.

By Frank Getty.
United News Sports Editor.
New York, July 11.—The case of Hack Wilson, ordinarily good-natured but occasionally pugnacious outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, comes up for decision before President Heydler, of the National league, tomorrow.

Heydler's decision may have an important bearing upon the outcome of the pennant race, for Hack is pouncing the old apple to beat the other seven contenders and his loss, even for a short time, would be a serious blow to the Cubs.

A one-round knockout victory over old Pete Donohue, of the Reds, scored in the railroad station at Cincinnati, has brought Wilson no offers in connection with the heavyweight championship now under dispute in other sporting circles. It has, however, brought down upon Hack's head the wrath of President McDiarmid, of the Reds, who insists upon the Cub slugger's indefinite suspension.

TESTIMONY TAKEN.
Testimony of Cincinnati ball players involved in the incident has been heard by President Heydler, and tomorrow the Chicago Cubs, from Bill Veck, the club president, down to the last boy, will have their say.

The Chicago players declare that this is what happened. Pitcher Kohn, of the Reds, made some remark to Wilson during the last Chicago-Cincinnati game at Redland park, and Hack went into the home team's dugout, bent upon socking Kohn on the nose.

About a score of Cincinnati players intervened, ending episode No. 1. Later in the day when players of the two teams met in the railroad station, old Pete Donohue took up the business of giving at. Wilson, and Hack, less bothered by interference, dropped Pete for a longer count than Gene Tunney got at Soldiers' field.

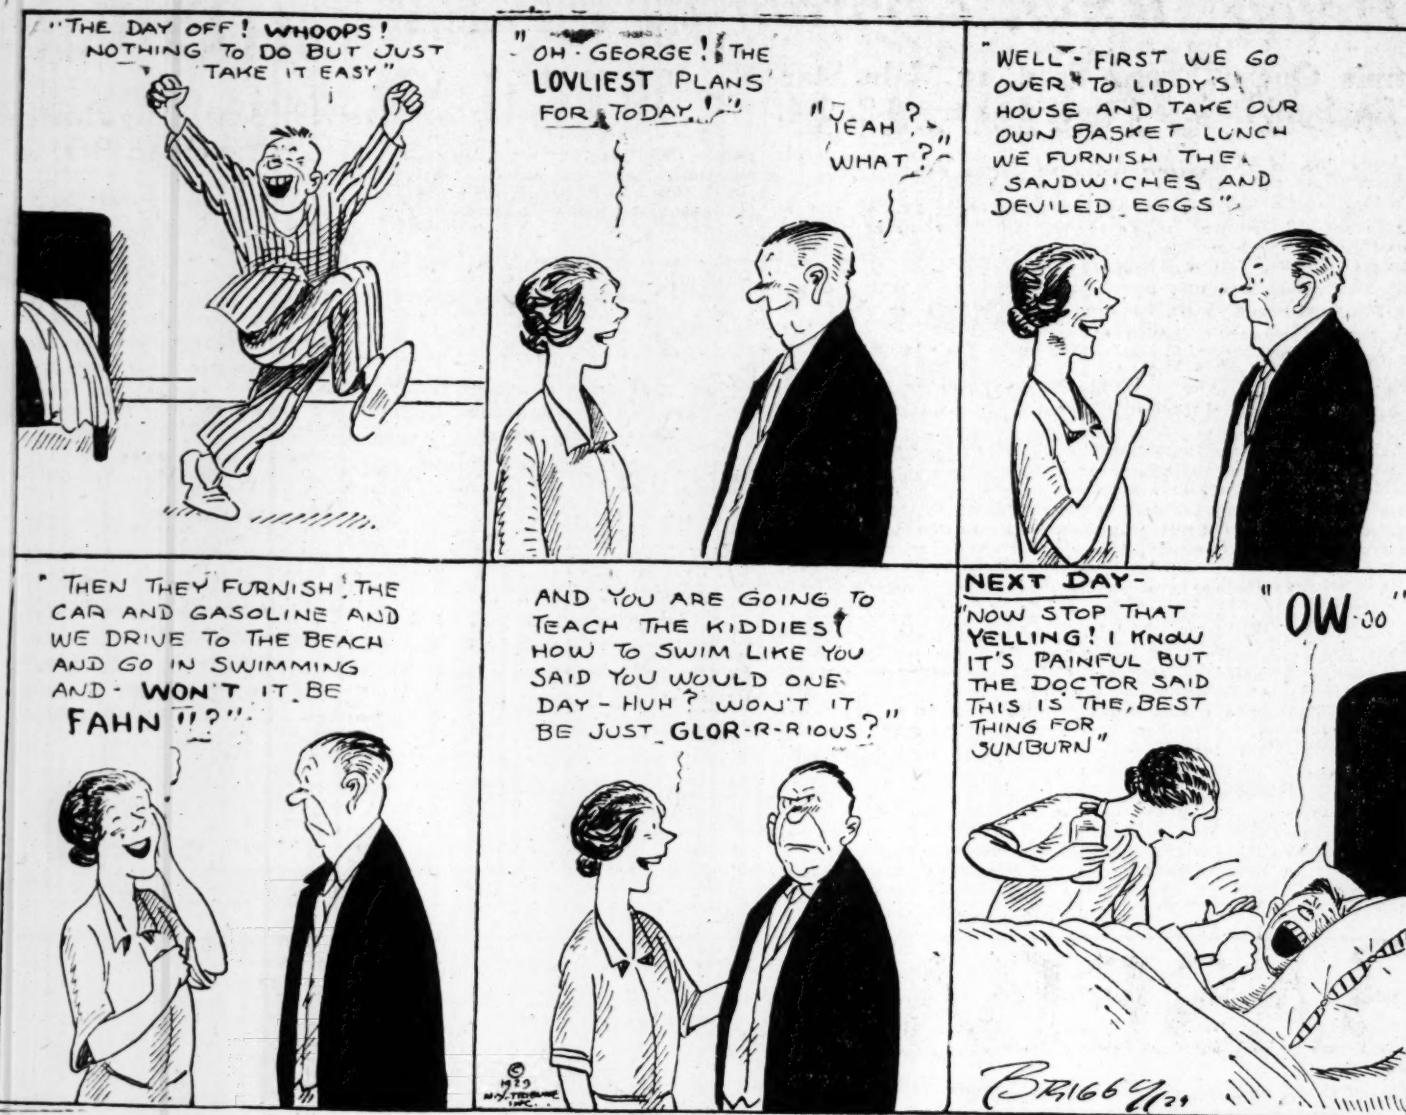

The Cubs are massing character witnesses to prove that Hack is just a big, good-natured boy, and insist that he was goaded into striking Donohue. If President Heydler can be persuaded to take this view, everything may be all right from the Chicago point of view.

Loughran's Toe Given Treatment

Hosick Falls, N. Y., July 11.—(United News.)—Tommy Loughran, light heavyweight champion, was unable to train today for his bout with Jimmy Braddock, in defense of his title, one week from tonight. He was treated by an Albany chiropodist for an ingrown toe-nail and had to stay off his feet all day. He hopes to resume work tomorrow.

Sonnenberg Dispels Talk of Mat "Trust"

By Ralph McGill.

All talk of a "trust" in the wrestling business seems to have been dissipated by the victory of Gus (Sonny Boy) Sonnenberg over the former champion, Ed (Strangler) Lewis.

About eight years ago there were two distinct camps in the wrestling business. One of them was claiming to be simply attending to business. The other camp claimed that they were left out and that a wrestling "trust" was in control, fixing matches as it desired and retaining the title between Joe Stecher, Stanislaus Zyzsko and Strangler Lewis.

CHIEF WEAPON.
Marion Piestina was the chief weapon of those claiming to be on the outside. He was offered as the trust buster, and his manager howled up and down the land because he could not get a match with one of the big three.

The group which had the title admitted that they would not wrestle Piestina, and cited the fact that his manager was a man.

Lewis-Sonnenberg Match in Sound

Pictures of the recent Gus Sonnenberg-Lewis wrestling match will be shown all next week at the Rialto theater, it was announced Thursday night by John A. Comzy, manager.

The picture runs for 25 minutes and is being rushed from New York by air mail in time for Monday's show.

Good Attendance.
Despite the poor showing of the team the attendance at Los Angeles this year is better than that of a year ago.

CAPITAL CITY QUALIFIERS TIE

Tom Shropshire, Jr., John Westmoreland Each Shoot 76.

Tom Shropshire, Jr., and John Westmoreland, with 76 each, led a field of more than 30 qualifiers Thursday afternoon, over the Capital City Club course in the first day's qualifying rounds for the club championship. Today and Saturday also have been allotted for qualifiers and match play will start Sunday.

Howard Beckett and Willie Livingston, professionals at the club, expect more than 75 entries before Sunday morning and interest is keener than ever before. An unusually large number qualified on Thursday, indicating one of the most successful tournaments in the history of the club.

Auto Group Holds Tourney.

A golf tournament over the East Lake Country Club course today will feature the annual picnic and outing of the Atlanta Automobile Association. O. J. Coe, chairman of the tournament committee, stated Thursday night that more than 100 entries have been received and approximately 50 more are expected, making the event the best in the history of the association.

Practically all the golfers will start in the early morning and the last players are required to leave the first tee before noon. A large number of silver trophies will be given to the winners and handicaps will apply.

MICKEY SUED FOR DIVORCE

bout with Leo Louski in Philadelphia July 29—and would never fight again—unless his wife returned. Two days later he was socking a sand bag and sparring in a gymnasium and it was assumed that things had been patched up.

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP.

Mickey won the welterweight championship in 1922 from the aging Jack Britton. He lost it in 1926 to Pete Latzo, a slugging Slovak from the Pennsylvania coal fields. In her suit today Mrs. Walker asserts that it was at this period of his career that Mickey began training after dark on Broadway. He found a raft of "friends and sweethearts" there, she said, and couldn't tear himself away from his admirers long enough to get home nights.

About this time, instead of going down the ladder as an ex-welterweight champion, Mickey came under the eye and influence of Jack Kearns, the manager who brought Jack Dempsey to the attention of a disheartened world. The first thing Mrs. Walker knew, she was the wife of a brand new middleweight champion.

Mickey, who was born Edward Patrick Walker, 28 years ago, and shaped himself into a preliminary boy by snacking down numerous tough kids on the sand lots of Elizabeth, N. J., was a great husband when he was a welterweight. Mrs. Walker doesn't say so in so many words, but she leaves it to be inferred. He married her in 1923, not longer after he had beaten Britton and the first thing he did was buy her a fine home in Lafayette street, Rumson, where the boy was born.

THE OTHER WOMAN.

In citing specific complaints against Mickey, Mrs. Walker set forth that she heard him talking over the phone in 1926 and saying, "Why haven't you been to New York, darling?" It is Mrs. Walker's opinion that the party on the other end was not Jack Kearns.

Mrs. Walker also said that when Mickey went to Europe to push over the anemic tough guys of the continent, he stayed in Paris long enough to squander $50,000 but would not allow her to go out of their home.

THE RESULTS IN TOURNEY AT COLUMBUS

Goss and Murrah Each Have 77 in Qualifying.

Columbus, Ga., July 11.—(AP)—Sid Goss, Albany, runner-up last year, and Nolan Murrah, Columbus mashie artist, tied for the qualifying medal of the Columbus Country Club's sixth annual invitation golf tournament which began here today.

Each man shot a 77 over the difficult course, but neither seriously threatened par, which is 71. The tie will be played off at 18 holes Saturday.

The East Lake Club of Atlanta won the team trophy with a total of 231, trailed by the four-man combination of the host club with 333. With J. W. West, Atlanta southpaw, on the course the two teams were tied at 252, but the Capital City team turned in a 79 while Columbus required 81.

Atlanta placed four in the championship flight; a lone Griffin golfer made the grade; Goss will represent Albany, and ten local club swingers will fill the other places.

'TRUST' TALK IS DISPELLED

who was not quite desirable, having been in the bad graces of a court at one time or other. They asked that the manager be changed and went merrily on their way.

WESTERN PLOT.

Meanwhile there was a plot going on in the middle west which had for its purpose the wresting of the title from the elder Zbyszko, who held it at that time.

Nashville was booming as a wrestling town then, and the fans there saw perhaps the most unusual match ever offered.

Farmer Burns, the old champion, was all sore up with the Big Three and their managers, Bill Sandow and Abe Bauman. He had been working for some time with a man whom he thought could win the title.

One day there drifted into Ed Ryan's cigar house at Nashville a young man who said he was a wrestler. He gave his name as Charlie Whitlock. He had no record to speak of, but was seemingly content to take what he could get.

WORKS IN PRELIM.

He went on in a preliminary to the next match offered and threw three local boys in twenty minutes, barely making the grade. Later on he was given a match and won it. He won four more and then dropped a match, but came back and won another.

About that time Stanislaus Zbyszko was touring and, as champion, was taking in good purses. He arrived in Nashville one morning and appeared that evening in the ring to meet Whitlock.

As Whitlock was introduced he stepped forward and held up his hand. "I want to say that my name is not Whitlock," he said, "but Hansen. I am Charlie Hansen, and I have been seeking this chance for a year."

Zbyszko went into a hurried conference with his manager. He protested to the promoter that he had agreed to meet a man named Whitlock, but the promoter insisted that a wrestler by any other name would be the same, and the match was on.

ATTACK ON 'TRUST.'

Farmer Burns' pupil was making the big try "to bust the trust." The match went on for an hour. They had been to the mat but once. As at match it was terrible. Zbyszko was keeping on the defensive. He was very, very careful as he moved slowly and ponderously about the ring, his huge sides shaking as does a horse's when he switches his skin.

Hansen was trying for a hammerlock, at which hold he was unusually adept.

For three long hours they moved about that ring—Hansen trying to get his hold—the smart old Pole fending him off. They were on the mat just once in the three hours.

After the three-hour period referee Pink Lawrence halted the match and declared it a draw. Hansen was outraged. Old man Zbyszko was almost exhausted when the time was up. He was hardly able to stand, and could not have lasted more than another thirty minutes.

He and his manager left quickly while Hansen mangled with the referee. The coup had failed.

low had fanned and not a tally got over.

The Crackers hustled across a couple of tallies in the second. Haley, who had walked, scored on Don Brennan's double. Brennan counted a moment later on Jack Sheehan's single.

They came right back with two more in the third after the Lookouts had scored in their half of the inning on Herb Pyle's freak home run. Dick Burrus walked and went to third on Lopez' double. He scored on Haley's single.

Lopez pulled the stunt that only Ty Cobb and another one or two of baseball's speed merchants have got away with by some smart thinking in the fifth. Dick Burrus had singled and gone to third on Lopez' single. The bases were filled when Pyle hit Haley.

Johnny Jones forced Burrus at the plate. Johnny Brock took the throw and ran three steps toward first as he threw in an effort to double the flying Jones. Al Lopez had started for third on the play. He reached it as Brock stepped toward first. The Cracker never checked at the corner, but hurried on in across the plate in the most daring bit of base-running of the year.

The Lookouts got their third tally in the fourth on Vick's home run and their fourth and final in the seventh when Brennan walked Pat Wright and gave up two singles in succession. It was after Wright had scored that Rauch went in and allowed no hit and no man to first of the next night.

The same teams play again today at 3 o'clock. Blithen will pitch for Atlanta.

Prince of Wales Sees Helen Defeat Captain

Tennis Queen Trims Ranking Male Star of England Before Select Gallery 6-2, 6-4.

London, July 11.—(AP)—Miss Helen Wills today showed a select and keenly interested gallery, including the Prince of Wales, how easily she is able to beat even a first-class male tennis player when on a private court in the west end of London she defeated Captain Victor Cazalet, M. P., by scores of 6-2, 6-4.

Captain Cazalet, former amateur squash racquets champion of Britain and a renowned tennis player, was no match for the woman champion of three nations. The Mail, describing the match, says she played as if merely toying with him and ran away with the first five games before she allowed Cazalet to win two, after which she promptly ran out the set. In the second set Helen allowed the score to reach 4-1 before running out.

Miss Wills' opponent declared he struggled his hardest but his efforts were unavailing as "she was too good."

This is not the first time Miss Wills has defeated a ranking male tennis star. A match with Fritz Mercur, one of the best American players, at Forest Hills last summer which was won by the woman champion aroused considerable discussion and was followed a few days later by a return match which Mercur won.

'Smarter.' William Wrigley, Jr., of Chicago, made an unexpected visit to Los Angeles to see why the Angels were doing so badly in the Pacific Coast league race this year.

'Human Cork' Still in Swim. Talking freely to spectators and answering any and all questions that he could, Norris Kellam, known as the "Human Cork," was swimming easily late Thursday night in the Piedmont lake, in an attempt to set a new endurance swim record. The present record is 72 hours 20 minutes.

Kellam began his endurance swim at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning when he was strapped to a chair, blindfolded and dropped into the water. Within a few seconds after he disappeared under the surface of the water he extricated himself and began to swim.

Bout Postponed.

Chicago, July 11.—(AP)—Rain forced Promoter Jim Mills to postpone the outdoor 10-round fight between Jack Berg, of England, and Herman Perlick, of Kalamazoo, Mich., which was scheduled for Mills stadium tonight. It will be held tomorrow night.

TURF MEN PULL FOR GREY COAT TO WIN CLASSIC

Colt Trained for Saturday Feature by Popular Track Figure.

BY BERT DEMBY, United News Staff Correspondent.

Chicago, July 11.—(United News.)—If sentiment has any place in horse racing, there'll be many persons at Arlington Park Saturday rooting for Grey Coat, trained by "Uncle Billy" Garth, when the best of America's three-year-old horses run in the $75,000 American classic.

"Uncle Billy," 83, come this spring, is the oldest trainer in America and there are few more colorful persons on the track. He is training now for Samuel Ross, the Washington, D. C., owner of Grey Coat.

"That's going to be a real horse race Saturday cause there's some good ones in there, but in the end it will be all Grey Coat," he said today.

"He sure is a sweet horse and boy what a heart he's got. They don't make the horse which can outgame him in the stretch."

National Leaders Pull for Yankees

Victory for Hugmen Would Mean Bigger Gate for Teams in 1929 World Series.

By Edward Burns.

Chicago, July 11.—Members of the St. Louis Cardinals, the Pittsburgh Pirates, and the Chicago Cubs are beginning to worry about the dough they won't get if the American league end of the world series is played in Shibe park, Philadelphia, instead in Yankee stadium, New York city.

The aforementioned athletes are not basing their fears altogether on the premise they will compete in what the authors call the fall classic. The four clubs in the first division cut the purse, you know, and the bigger the purse, the bigger all the four cuts. These clubs will finish in the first division.

CUES WORRYING THE MOST. The Cubs, perhaps, are worrying more about ball park specification of the American league winners. A New York-Chicago world series would be the first since the White Sox-Giant affair in 1917. Something like $80,000 a game could and would be packed into Yankee stadium with the Cubs playing. Fewer than half that number could squeeze into Shibe park.

You don't have to have a ball player's knack for computing statistics to see the difference in the four-day player take.

If you can overlook the great suffering among ball players that would result from cutting their gate almost in half, you'll have to admit the playing of the American league end of the world series would add zest to the event, seeing as the Athletics have not won a pennant since 1914.

We warn you to wear your iron helmet in case you attend world series games in Shibe park this fall. That is the place where they sell pop in cartoons instead of bottles, but there's nothing to keep a Philadelphia fan from concocting a few rocks on his person when he comes to the ball park.

SYNOPSIS:

Joy Harrison, living in London and working for Dr. Rex Travers in Harley street, is crushed by a letter from her fiancé, Geoffrey Ford, a well-known novelist, asking to be released from the engagement. Preoccupied with her own trouble, she fails to notice that Dr. Travers seems troubled, too. Toward the end of the day he tells Joy that he has just lost a great deal of money through an unscrupulous solicitor, and he will be forced to give up his house in Harley street.

Dr. Locke, a tenant, tells Rex that he has just been offered a practice with a comfortable villa in the south of France which he cannot take on, and he suggests that he recommend Joy for it. The only hitch to the plan is that they want a married doctor and Rex is a bachelor. To his partner's suggestion that he marry and take up the new post, Rex turns a deaf ear.

Joy, who has been listening to the doctor's colloquy, suddenly sees a method of escape for her and she asks Dr. Travers if he will marry her on a business arrangement. The doctor is stunned by her suggestion, and finally agrees why not? He tells her that she is a lovely girl and in need of another job, although her real reason is to have Geoffrey read of her engagement to another man.

The doctor hands over the change his altered circumstances will have on his young nephew and ward, Percival Arthur Fitzroy. Finally he decides to take Joy at her word, and they enter into an agreement to marry on a strictly business basis. Immediately after the ceremony Rex and Percival Arthur go to the south of France. Joy enjoys keeping house, and Percival Arthur has the time of his life. Joy and Rex become interested in each other. Then the Ford, Geoffrey and his mother, appear on the scene. Joy invites them to her first tea party. Geoffrey resents his attention to Joy and Rex grows jealous. Joy is no longer interested in Rex, but a misunderstanding arises between herself and Rex which strains their relations. They are both miserable.

INSTALLMENT LXV.

PERCIVAL ARTHUR TALKS.

Percival Arthur stared. "You told Joy to go away with that blighter?" The words that broke from the boy seemed curiously inadequate to the tone that summed up long, long thoughts of youth, hours of youth's secret broodings. "But look here, she's your wife! Uncle Rex! You married her! I thought you liked her!"

Travers gave that slight shrug. "It's a wretched business. Not much to talk about. You'll understand better later. I don't suppose I can ever tell even you the whole of it, but—as Joy was so unhappy—"

"Unhappy? Here? Had she the nerve to say that? Joy?" Travers could almost have smiled at the stare of indignant astonishment on that young face. "Some day, old man, you'll come to understand that if you care sufficiently for a woman you'll think first of her happiness, and since Joy was miserable here—"

(Percival Arthur's lips silently formed the word "Miserable.") "One—any—how, I could not stand in her way. Some people—plenty of people—will think one was mistaken to act as I did. They won't know the whole story, either. They'll never be able to. But I thought—well, know it's better. That's all. And Joy is not coming back to us, Good night."

But the boy stood as if his feet in those torn socks had been rooted to the kitchen tiles. He still stared as though his uncle had gone suddenly raving mad before his eyes. "She with that blighter? Joy?" You told her—she's with him?" "Unfortunately," Rex Travers began, and gave a deep sigh. "Difficult to explain to you, and—anyhow you ought to have been in bed for hours—" "Bed?" exclaimed Percival Arthur, contemptuous scowl. "Will they really go on talking to a man about bed? Now?" "—and some day you'll probably realize on your own that a one-sided show is never any earthly good. If a girl doesn't care for you, and if you care for her, there's nothing you can do, old man, if you care for her. As I say, it's her happiness you put first, as—"

Exactly the breaking voice repeated. "She's with that blighter now? Because you told her to go?" Half angrily, half puzzled, Travers began to say something short about this, after all, being his business, but as he spoke the boy seemed to have made a mental leap to catch some idea as it passed like an unseen cricket ball between them in the air. "Half a second! Uncle Rex! You don't know? Gosh, you don't know, then? You think—But she told me herself!" "What are you talking about? You get to bed!" "Bed? How can anyone possibly go to bed? Something I want to tell you—" "I don't want to hear: it will have to keep till tomorrow morning—" "It won't keep—" "Have to! I don't want to discuss things now. Call in that dog, Rex! And come to bed, old man, come to bed!" Travers set down his empty cup. He was all in; so was the boy, or ought to be! Instead of which this confounded boy was bright eyed as an infant who'd awakened for its midnight feed; the boy was all full of talk and questions, as if his uncle hadn't already got more than enough.

on his mind. He turned towards the kitchen door. "You go on while I put out the light. I'm coming too." "Uncle Rex, I can't come. I won't. You must hear about this! It's very important—something you've got to listen to—" "Well?" said Travers, turning back, pausing.

"For all this wretched, urgent, mutinous, over-excited youngster was all he now had left to him in the world. 'What's this all about?' Man and boy faced each other in that winking, blinking French kitchen under the unshaded electricity. Rex Travers, large and seemingly to hold in dress ties and white surgical jacket, was backed by Melaine's glittering array of pots and pans on shelves. His eyes, clear, authoritative, and confident with the confidence that is youth because all life stretches before him, met the eyes of the older man; eyes deep set, blank, hopeless with the knowledge that the best of life lay now behind him, since life's sweetest hope had been taken away.

"What's all this, old man?" "It's about what Joy told me." "What?" "You know that afternoon Joy came for me in the count's car; that afternoon?" "I remember the afternoon." (Did he not?) "Well, you know, we went over to the Musée Océanographique. The fish and that? I mean the first one, with the blue ring. I said to Joy, 'Why was that broken off?' Joy said, 'Tired of me?'"

"What of Joy? Who was tired?" "Ford. The Ford blighter. So I said to Joy, 'Just now when he looked at you he didn't seem fed.' Joy said, 'No, afterwards he said he wasn't.' I said, 'Then people can come untired again. How mad! But Joy hasn't become untired, not of this Ford man! She's fed with him all right!'"

Rex Travers shook his head. He saw again that red tail light of the car disappearing in the night with the young, expressive face, the voice of mutations, that slender frame. "I know he bores her. Joy does at least talk to me! Joy does at least tell me things. Often! So I asked her straight out about this—this—"

He seemed to seek for a word. He found the inevitable. "Blighter. And when—the boy swallowed hard, spoke yet more earnestly. 'When I said to her, 'You're keener now than you used to be in London; you're keen on Rex—'"

Without prefix it slipped from Travers, suddenly tense, stared under the staring light. He was no longer the guardian of 33 talking to the ward of 15. He might have been a rather older boy still at Newborough. And it was as man to man that he asked swiftly. "When you said that, old man, what did Joy say?" "She said, 'Yes, I suppose I am.'"

"She said that?" "Sure as you're alive. I talked to Joy—O, I made Joy own up. Can't stand women pretending they don't know their own minds. As any one could help knowing his own mind! When she said, about being keen on you, I suppose I am, I said, 'Can't you say you're sure just like that. And Joy said, 'Yes, I am.'"

"You are certain Joy said that?" "Of course I am certain. Joy said, 'Yes, I am.'"

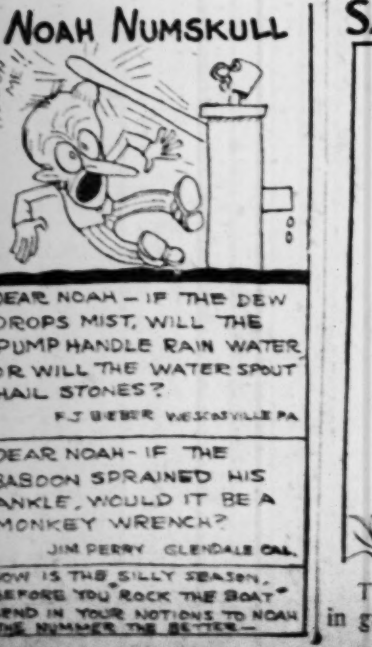

"Meaning keen on me?" "Yes," cried young Fitzroy, his voice breaking on a note of exasperation, of resentment, of accusation, which at that moment was lost upon the other. "Keen on you? On you! And she's married to you, and here she was, perfectly O. K. in your house, your wife, and all you do is to tell her to go away with a blighter, after what I heard her say!"

"You think she meant it?" (Continued tomorrow.) (Copyright, 1929, for The Constitution.)

THE RETURN OF TARZAN No. 29

As the voice died down, the raiders stood as though turned to stone. It was Tarzan, the commanding cannibal to kill their masters. The few remaining Arabs drew together. Their sheik, raising his rifle, ordered the black to march. Instead, they threw down their loads and rushed fiendishly upon the Arabs.

Instantly the scene became a howling mob of demons fighting with knives and guns. In ten minutes the last Arab lay dead. Then Tarzan showed himself. When the cannibals saw his mighty figure, they were struck with awe and admiration. He ordered them to return to the village with the stolen ivory. In fear they obeyed.

At the end of the third day they reached the village and were greeted by the survivors of the recent massacre. It took all of Tarzan's mastery to keep the Waziri warriors from tearing the cannibals to pieces. That night the village held a big palaver to celebrate their victory.

They wanted also to choose a new chief. Busuli spoke from the solemn circle about the council fire. "Old Waziri is dead, leaving no son," he said. "There is only one fitted to lead us." It is the white man who has brought us victory. Then he sprang to his feet. With spear uplifted, he began to dance slowly about Tarzan.
